KIDS SPEAK OUT - VIDEO/PODCAST

Conversations with Children about the Coronavirus

BARBARA HARRISON MEDIA INC.

Website: KIDSPEAKOUT.ME

Dear Parent/Guardian:

Your child has expressed an interest in participating in Kids Speak Out: Conversations with Children about the Coronavirus will be among the first month's episodes of the broadcast.

OVERVIEW

The program will appear in both YouTube Video & Podcast Audio formats. The podcast will use Zoom technology to produce and record 20-minute episodes consisting of conversations with children, K-12. It will be produced and hosted by Barbara Harrison, the national Emmy award-winning journalist and news anchor.

Three episodes each week will be divided into Elementary, Middle School and High School children who will interact with each other, with Barbara and also with content experts.

The children are invited to share their questions, thoughts, stories, experiences and advice regarding the current health crisis that nations around the globe are experiencing.

This video/podcast will go live April 1, 2020.

WAYS TO PARTICIPATE

- 1.You can be a guest on an episode that will be recorded through Zoom.
2. You can video record your story, questions or other input on a smart phone and email it to Kids Speak Out at: barbara@barbaraharrisonmedia.com OR via the web site at kidspeakout.me.
3. You can go on the website and complete a content form in which you (or another family member) can tell the story and then submit it (with a photo) as a YouTube or Podcast submission.

CONFIDENTIALITY & PRIVACY

Participants of all ages will be addressed by first name only. They will not be asked their age or location beyond country and state. Barbara Harrison Media will not publish or share any recorded or written information submitted to us containing personal identifiers of participating children, other than use of recorded video and audio of your child's image or voice.
