HELP ME TO HELP MYSELF

CPJSP is a Rwandan National Non-Governmental Organization. It stands for « Centre de Promotion des Jeunes pour Sortir de la Pauvreté », which means a center for the promotion of the youth for getting out of poverty. CPJSP has a motto that says « Help Me to help Myself ».

Established in 2007 with the law No 20/2000 of the 26th July, 2000 which regulates the non profit organizations. CPJSP was created after observing that a big number of youth in the region suffer from a high rate of unemployment and life was so difficult due to lack of sufficient professional and technical competences and financial means.
