ABOUT US

Love the Tough, Inc. is a 501c3 nonprofit organization, based out of Kansas City, that helps people develop leadership and character-building skills through motivational conferences and other services. Its board members and volunteers are comprised of a diversity of people around the country. The name "Love the Tough" represents how tough things can bring out great things. Tough goals, tough conversations, and tough trials can all be blessings of growth in our character and leadership.

CONFERENCE

Own It Student Leadership Conferences bring together a diversity of students from surrounding areas to...

- Communicate with compassion in a polarized society.
- Live with grit when life is not fair.
- Build relationships grounded in character.

Featuring...

- > Professional youth motivational speaker, Brandon Lee White
- > Community Leaders and guest speakers
- > Lunch, leadership workbooks, and swag bags
