Dear Link Sisters,

On behalf of the Atlanta (GA) Chapter of The Links, Incorporated, it is my distinct honor to welcome you to the 2025 Georgia Links Day at the Capitol! As the host chapter for this significant event, we are thrilled to bring together Link members from across the state and Southern Area to engage in meaningful dialogue and advocacy on key legislative priorities that impact our communities.

Today is a testament to the power of friendship and service. As we convene at the heart of Georgia's legislative process, we stand united in our commitment to advancing policies that align with our mission of service and social justice. Through informative discussions, strategic engagement, and direct advocacy, we reaffirm our role as catalysts for change.

We extend our deepest gratitude to our esteemed elected officials, policy experts, and community leaders who have joined us today. Your insights and partnership are invaluable as we work collectively to effect positive change.

To my fellow Link sisters, thank you for your dedication to advocacy and civic engagement. Your presence here today reflects our shared commitment to shaping a brighter future for those we serve. Let us use this opportunity to strengthen our collective voice, deepen our understanding of critical issues, and reinforce the impact of The Links, Incorporated in the legislative and social action arenas.

Again, welcome to the 2025 Georgia Links Day at the Capitol! May this day inspire us all to continue leading with purpose, advocating with passion, and making a lasting difference.

In Friendship and Service,

Marci McKenna, President
Atlanta (GA) Chapter
The Links, Incorporated
