Happy April, Fellow Kiwanians-

The first quarter of the year brought us ups and downs. Despite the times, we as Kiwanis continued to move forward and to serve our Communities, sharing tears of loss and joy. Thank you again for those who have been the pillars and support to those around you. Thank you for your continued service, providing opportunities and experiences to individuals who would not have them without your endless efforts.

During this month's DCM, Javier Gomez from Inlakech in Oxnard was recognized for his five decades of dedication and support to the youth of Oxnard. Javier Gomez, better known as Mr. Gomez, has been a lifelong educator with a passion for visual and performing arts and cultural conservation. As a teacher, his warm demeanor welcomed students to explore their talents learning traditional folkloric and indigenous dance, acting in plays, playing an instrument, and serving their community, all while promoting the importance of attaining an education and completing a college degree.

Through the Inlakech Center, youth from Oxnard and neighboring cities have had the opportunity to grow both personally and creatively. Participants have moved on to be professional performers, not to mention educators, administrators, lawyers, architects, lawyers, doctors, and everything in between. Many of which may not have had the motivation to do so without their participation in the Center. A Center that provides their programming at no cost to their participants.

His passion to help others was passed on to his daughter, Xotchitl Gomez, or Ms. Gomez to her students at Hueneme High School, where she serves as a Counselor. She was also recognized and given the Lt. Governor Award for her dedication to her students. She has been a Counselor for over twenty years, serving the community she grew up in.

The evening which began with a stage full of elementary through high school students was a reinforcement that every child can become the best versions of themselves as long as they have the support of their CommUnity. They (students) are more able to succeed if they are provided with the space, opportunity, and direction for them to feel safe to fail, self-reflect, and learn to grow from their mistakes. It is through individuals like Mr. Gomez, Ms. Gomez, and all the Kiwanians who filled The Arc that children have the opportunity to achieve their dreams. All of our collaborative efforts make a difference, whether it may be the meal that was provided through our canned food drives, the warmth they experience through the donated coats, toys they entertained themselves with through our toy drives, or college tuition they received through our scholarships that helped them separate from their hardships and embrace the blessings they have received.

Let's continue to recognize the Gomezes in our communities, as they do not do it for a pat on the back, but rather to lift their community and through impacting the youth, who are the future.

THANK YOU, fellow Kiwanians; you are all the pieces of the puzzle who make the difference in our youth, neighbors, and CommUnity!

Camarillo

Allen Grizzard-Paul Reporting

March saw the end of the Special Needs Basketball season, and I am pleased to report that these, along with some other adults, will be the charter members of the new Skyways Aktion Club. Also in March our KIWIN'S turquoise Div. Lt. Governor, Sheila Corpuz, visited our Builders Club to explain to them what their next adventure in the Kiwanis Family will be when they move on to high school. She presented KIWIN'S/Key Club 101, and then she sat in on their committee meetings.

Future Aktion Club

KIWIN'S LTG, Sheila, at the Builders Club Meeting

Also in March, we joined other volunteers to start Phase 1 of kidSTREAM renovation. This included moving furniture and LEGO displays into the main area so they can start working on one side of the building. Removing carpet and linoleum from the offices became a real messy job. Work will commence to the right of the column, and I am hoping, if it is safe to do so, we may be able to use the large area for small events until Phase 2 starts. No commitment yet.

We held our first Food Drive of 2025 at the Grocery Outlet in Camarillo. Five Builders Club members came along to help. We filled 9 carts with food and received over $100 in donations.

Moorpark

Ute Van Dam Reporting

L - R: Our monthly social meeting was so much fun! Our hostess, Danielle, cooks up a delicious Irish feast. Mark, Cat, Bryan, Emily, and Tom wear green to celebrate St. Patrick's Day.

Moorpark has TERRIFIC Kids! And Barbara, Bruce, Bryan, and Janet are TERRIFIC Kiwanians!

Ute and Mark enjoy the student mariachi entertainment at the April DCM.

Oxnard hosted the April DCM with a program featuring elementary through high school students from the Inlakech Cultural Arts Center in Oxnard, which provides both youth and adults with a free afterschool cultural education program. President Pablo Gallegos recognized Javier Gomez, founder of Inlakech, with a Community Service Award for his five decades of passionate support to the youth of Oxnard. His daughter, Xotchitl, received the Lt. Governor Award for dedication to her students at Hueneme High School, where she has been a counselor for over twenty years.

Santa Barbara

Marsha Gray Reporting

In December we lost one of our most loved and devoted Kiwanians. Anita Dominocielo-Ho was a dominant and instrumental member of our club. So, true to the Kiwanis spirit of positivity, we held a celebration of Anita's life. It took place at the Grace Fisher Inclusivity and Arts Center. Anita was devoted to the Aktion Club. The members were grateful for a chance to say their final goodbyes to Anita.

Mementos, good food, and fond conversation; Right: Past President Angela Miller Bevan with Santa Barbara Parks and Recreation Supervisor Julie Thomas and Julie's daughter.

L - R: The Aktion Club knows how to party. Panda Express and homemade brownies; Aktion Club coordinator, Lauren Loza, invited everyone to come up and speak. She asked, "How are you going to honor Anita's memory?" Past President Angela spoke about her special friendship with Anita.

Speakers at our April 2nd meeting were two dedicated volunteers with the Carpinteria Seal Watch, Randy and Susan. The Carpinteria rookery is one of four remaining rookeries on the Southern California coast.

Kiwanis members, friends, and families enjoyed LCR Game Day, featuring fun, prizes, light snacks, and beverages.

Our Round*Up Country Music Festival was a huge success! Perfect weather drew a crowd estimated at 2,000.

Thousand Oaks

John Prescott Reporting

The Thousand Oaks Kiwanis Club helped organize this year's Thousand Oaks High School Career Expo, where students could meet with members who could offer advice about career choices. Of course, we also offered pizza - that's (L - R) Kiwanians Teta Van Ommeren, Kathy Smiley, Lynn Burdick, and Rick Herrera ready to serve. Sean Leonard, Teta, and Lynn show off the beverages available. Hiding behind the "Dentist" label is retired dentist and Past President Dr. Arnold Rudman. Speaking to the students at a table is Past President Dr. Dave Biedebach.

The Weathersfield Elementary School K-Kids raised more than $400 by selling "rocking" flower bouquets, to benefit Shelter Hope, a volunteer non-profit that operates a local pet shop where people can link up with a shelter pet in need of a loving home. Member Cristy Warner, the K-Kids advisor, joins them at their sales booth. The K-Kids also gathered $450 in quarters for the Conejo Schools Foundation's "Conejo Closet Clean Clothes for Kids" campaign. And on top of that, they've recently published their fourth book, proudly displayed by advisor Cristy.

Lieutenant Governor Elect Paul Lopez and President Robin Britt led the Thousand Oaks Kiwanis Club delegation to the Cal-Nev-Ha District Mid-Year South Education Conference in San Diego. Paul and Robin learned a lot at the Conference and seized the opportunity to network with other Kiwanians.

Ventura Kiwanis hosted the March DCM, and presented the Lt. Governor's award to the well-deserving Sally Bodine.

Childhood Matters founder, Shaleena Tareen, was the speaker at our regular meeting on 3/21. It was a very interesting presentation. At another meeting, Michelle Bleuel showed off the Data Builders Club's projects.

Ventura High School Key Club elected its officers for 2025-26.

Ventura KIWANIS and VHS Key Cub joined in improving the Petit Ranch property for SeaAg as this year's Kiwanis One Day event.

Division 42 THE HUB

District and Foundation Awards - May 31st Deadline!

Children's Fund Awards (Click titles to access entry forms.)

Bert Shoemaker Award: Is there a "Mr. or Ms. Kiwanis" in your club? The Bert Shoemaker Award is presented annually at the Cal-Nev-Ha District Convention to one Kiwanian who has best exemplified the spirit of Kiwanis. Kiwanis clubs are encouraged to submit candidates who have earned the love and respect of their fellow members by virtue of exceptional contribution to their clubs and their communities. This award gives clubs a unique opportunity to give recognition to a Kiwanian who has given much to Kiwanis without ever asking anything in return.

Nathan Hale Award: Not all heroes wear capes! Somewhere in your community there may be SOMEONE who performs a deed of heroism "above and beyond" what is considered the norm. Kiwanians throughout the Cal-Nev-Ha District are urged to seek out nominees for the prestigious Nathan Hale Award for heroism. Please note the competition is not a contest, nor is it limited to any number of individuals who may receive the award in any year. The successful nominee(s) will be honored on stage and presented with a Nathan Hale award at our District Convention.

Special Olympics Athlete of the Year: Let Me Win, But If I cannot Win, Let Me Be Brave In The Attempt! The athletes of Special Olympics have a tremendous devotion to competition. They make a commitment each and every day to make the best of their ability. As Kiwanians, we need to recognize the remarkable achievement that people with developmental delays have made in our society. Special Olympics is the world's largest sports organization for children and adults with intellectual or physical disabilities. Any club that has a qualified applicant may submit an application for K-Team Special Olympics "Athlete of the Year." The winning applicant will receive $250 for their use in Special Olympics. The award will be presented at our District Convention.

Club Brochure Award: To emphasize the importance of an excellent club brochure, the Kiwanis International Committee on Marketing and Public Relations created the Club Brochure Contest. Clubs are encouraged to mail or email an entry form along with a current club brochure to the District Chair. Winners are selected based on overall appearance, graphics, printing quality, and the use of logos. The winning club is presented with a banner patch at the District Convention during the Awards Luncheon.

Club Website Award: Due to the explosive growth in club and division Websites, and recognizing that an increasing number of clubs now publish their newsletters electronically, the club and division Website contest was created. Among the features considered in judging the Websites are whether they are attractive, easy to navigate, current, interesting, contain links to District and International Websites, and contain information on meetings, membership club history and the community. The winning clubs and divisions receive a specially designed banner patch at the District Convention.

Club Newsletter Awards: Five perpetual trophies were presented to the District by Past Governor Clyde L. Hurley and are on display in the Kiwanis District Office inscribed with the winners' names. They are awarded for the best club newsletter in each of the five sections based on club membership: Gold Section: 101 or more members; Silver Section: 71 to 100 members; Orange Section: 46 to 70 members; Blue Section: 31 to 45 members; White Section: 30 or less members. A club mails or emails three (3) best newsletters to the District Chair. The winning clubs are presented with a banner patch at the District Convention.
