My kids' moms and I were all raised Christian. But our three-year-old goes to preschool at the local Jewish Temple. We signed him up there because the school was well reviewed, and it offered part-time enrollment. (Most other schools would let you send your kid part time, but required that you pay for full time. That was not an option for us.) We joined for practical reasons, but the experience has been fulfilling on so many other levels. Beit Ha Yeladim preschool has been such a wonderful experience for Josh as a student, and for us as his parents. Like our three-year-old, we have learned the time-honored stories behind holidays and traditions that were always a curiosity to us, and we have been whole-heartedly accepted as a non-traditional family and members of the preschool community. Last week, we all attended BHY for the final Shabbat of Hannukah and stuck around for a traditional luncheon of latkes. Our lives are richer for this experience.

I think there's a lesson in there for us as Kiwanians. As we work to make our organization more accessible to anyone who wants to help improve the world one child and one community at a time, it is inevitable that we will encounter different traditions, different faiths, different orientations, and so many enriching and fulfilling new experiences in the process. I hope we, as clubs and as a division, will continue to extend the same open hand of acceptance that my family experienced with Josh's preschool.

In that spirit, I wish you all a Happy Hannukah, Merry Christmas, Happy Kwanzaa, an enchanting Winter Solstice, and peace and joy in the new year to come.

And I would be remiss if I did not spend a few words bragging about the great work going on in our division. Our clubs are all well on their way to completing our division goals for the year and nearly every club has finished their Kiwanis One Day project. (Thank you to Immediate Past Lt. Governor and current Division Secretary Debbie for keeping us on task with those goals!)

In other news, Simi Valley threw a great December Division Council Meeting complete with Dump-Cake Desserts and a rousing game of Kiwanis Division 42 Bingo.

And once again, Camarillo impressed with about 25 more gift bags to contribute to our division project on top of the nearly 100 pair of socks they donated last month. And perhaps the most exciting thing: Those gift bags were assembled by their newly chartered Builders Club at University Preparation Charter School in Camarillo! Once again, great work Camarillo.

I could not be prouder of the work we are all doing. Have a wonderful holiday – however you celebrate it – and I look forward to a great new year with you all!

Matt

On the last Tuesday in November, a number of us went on a field trip to visit our newest member's humble abode. Anne Zachry runs a Sustainability Learning Center where she provides lectures on how to live at minimal cost while saving the environment – and yes, she does live in the tent. Where some of us might call it "Living Rough," Anne finds it very comfortable as she has a nice wood stove, bed, couch, electricity, computer, and running water. In addition to all that, she is doing wonders for the environment, as nearly everything she uses is recycled. On the learning side, Anne is experimenting with all sorts of edible plants that are growing in buckets that use minimal water. We are looking at these buckets for our next service project, where we can provide them to schools to help teach the kids, who can then teach their parents, how to grow their food and save the environment at the same time.

Anne's home and Sustainability Learning Center

Mary, Linda, and Peter getting the info from Anne

Here are some examples from Anne's garden. The chickens are optional.

We are proud to announce that we have successfully chartered a new Builders Club at the University Preparation Charter School. They have already started on service projects, writing Christmas cards and preparing gift bags for the Lt. Governor's Project helping homeless children have a better life. They also did some brainstorming on what service and fundraising projects they could start working on.

Builders Club members brainstorming with post-its. Ok, so we probably would have stuck them on the whiteboard. But they are so much more inventive and made it a lot of fun.

We will be dark the last two Tuesdays in 2021 and will start back live on Jan. 4, Noon, at the Sportsman Restaurant.

Conejo Valley

Roger Klausler Reporting

President Sue Bartley, Sonia Agresti, and David Yeomans brought donations from our club to the December DCM for the Division Project to support homeless kids through Noah's Anchorage in the Santa Barbara area and School on Wheels in the Ventura area.

On December 10, we celebrated the holidays at the home of Paul and Marty Campbell and brought unwrapped gifts to be donated to Toys for Tots.

Our November Thanksgiving social was at the beautiful home of Curt and Denise.

Between our Moorpark Kiwanians, Key Club, and Builders Club, we collected almost 1500 canned goods for the Moorpark Food pantry!

Bernardo Perez, Trustee for the Ventura County Community College District, spoke to our club.

Holiday on High Street was a huge success! Our members volunteered at this family fun event... including The Grinch!

LEFT: President Rodney Medina supporting former President Kathy Sullivan at her community event in downtown Ventura - raising awareness for animal rescue, supporting small businesses, and promoting her new real estate business. RIGHT: Our November Social at the home of Sergio and TinaMarie Martinez brought in a new member who will be inducted at the beginning of the year.

Kiwanis of Oxnard in cooperation with six local schools, Rio Mesa H.S., Oxnard H.S., Rio Del Valle Jr. High School, Rio Plaza Elementary, Lemonwood Elementary, and Lopez Academy, held a canned food drive and donated 1080 lbs. of food to Food Share Ventura County in time for Thanksgiving. Special thanks to Kiwanis member Cuauhtemoc Solorio (in tan shirt) for helping organize this event. Also a special thanks to Sofia Barajas (Key Club President, RMHS), Carlos Oregel, Co-Key Club President (OHS), Marsha Cordes (ASB Advisor OHS), Andre Vasquez (Counselor, RDV), Brenda Bravo (Principal, Rio Plaza), Ms. Montano (Counselor, Lemonwood), Kimberlee Ramirez (Counselor, Lopez Academy) for their efforts at their respective schools. Kiwanis appreciates them for "Saying Yes to Service." It is incredible to see how a seed of an idea can involve so many of our youth to give back to their own communities!

Santa Barbara

Marsha Gray Reporting

Our very understated and wonderful Kiwanian Eddie Cue was recognized as Kiwanian of the Year. President Nancy presents him with the plaque. Thank you, Eddie!

Member Juli Askew works for the Santa Barbara Symphony. She arranged for our speaker, Dr. Nicholas Fuentes, Vice President of Community Education with the symphony. Dr. Fuentes brought us up to date on the incredible activities the symphony is doing musically with our youth and the entire community.

For the last 40 years the Kiwanis Club has served a delicious Thanksgiving luncheon to our disabled community. In conjunction with the Santa Barbara Parks and Recreation Department, the Wednesday before Thanksgiving is a huge day for us. This year we held it outside at Oak Park. Immediate Past Governor Gary gets up early to make sure all the food is cooked and ready to serve by 11am. It's all hands on deck. Many, many servers dish out ham, turkey, stuffing, yams, gravy, and corn. Kiwanian Walt Browne had help from his college-age granddaughter. There's lots of pumpkin pie and whipped cream. Chris Benedict, local DJ of ability, kept the music rocking.

Kiwanis Club of Santa Barbara President Nancy was with 20 or so members of our Santa Barbara Aktion Club, meeting at Rusty's Pizza. The Aktion Club wrote Christmas cards and greetings to the residents of our local residential care facilities. Kiwanis member Shelly Richards always shows up to help. We had awards! Beverly Cooper, shown with Aktion Club President Nanette Clarke, is Aktion Club Member of the Year! Aktion Club member Kevin Broohy is Special Olympics Athlete of the Month.

We held a Visit from Santa and a Kiwanis dinner for low-income children and their families in Isla Vista. Shelly Richards brought her teen-age army of volunteers to help serve burgers and potato salad to 200 hungry children and their families. The chefs never fail to produce a delicious BBQ! Thank you, Past Lt. Governor Ed Cue, past Governor Gary Gray, and Orlando Aldana. President Nancy had a burger, too!

Santa Susana

Debbie Heaslip Reporting

Bell Ringing for the Salvation Army

Debbie helped teach Boy Scout volunteers the art of preparing over 500 servings of cranberry sauce at the Rotary Club's annual Thanksgiving Dinner for Seniors.

This year they were distributed via the "To Go" drive-by system.

Santa Susana Tradition

Ten Thanksgiving baskets for families in need, including turkey and all the fixin's, were donated and boxed by members, then delivered by Margaret.

Simi Kiwanians helped the Rotary Club prepare their annual Thanksgiving Dinner for Seniors - to go this year!

Our Salvation Army Bell Ringers sang and rang their way to the highest one-day collection recorded at our site.

Several members serve as docents at Strathearn Historical Park and helped with the gala Holiday Open House.

The Simi-Su Aktion Club meeting included a visit from Santa and caroling.

The Thousand Oaks Kiwanis Club's "Letters to Santa" for Macy's annual holiday donation to the Make-A-Wish Foundation was a great success! Weathersfield Elementary School K-Kids turned in 757 letters alone. Along with other area schools, the Los Cerritos Middle School Builders Club, the Thousand Oaks and Westlake High School Key Clubs, the Thousand Oaks Kiwanis Club, and Macy's Thousand Oaks staff, a total of 5,850 letters were turned in. Since it was "Double Down Friday," Macy's will donate $2 per letter, for a total of $11,720, to Make-A-Wish Foundation! Way to go, Kiwanis and community!

December 4 was a cool and cloudy day in Thousand Oaks, but it didn't deter local non-profit Ride-On Therapeutic Horsemanship from staging its annual TrailFest Fundraiser. Ride-on clients rode their mounts to earn pledges to help support Ride-On's programs that benefit disabled individuals. As usual, the Thousand Oaks Kiwanis Club was on hand to provide a delicious barbecue lunch for participants, Ride-On's staff, and volunteers. Tom Skinner headed up the project.

The Thousand Oaks Club held its annual Holiday Party December 11, with about 60 members and guests attending. Santa Claus made the scene, posing with "good" boy and girl Thousand Oaks Mayor (and Past Lt. Governor) Bob Engler and First Lady Sue Engler. He also joined entertainer Nancy Osborne as she delivered a selection of holiday tunes, including "Santa Baby." The contest theme this year was "Crazy Hats," and Modestine Tardif was the clear winner. Immediate Past President Craig Burns awarded her prize. Members brought gifts and school supplies for disadvantaged children served by the Area Housing Authority. Many thanks to Social Committee Chair Kim Baumann, Mary Sepe, and Doug Ryan (Santa), and their team for staging a great party.

This past month the Ventura Club was busy with our basketball tournaments. Pictured are President Jerry Deal and Secretary Fred Ziegler handing out the trophies to the champions and MVPs of the Ventura College Women's Basketball Tournament.

One other event that we are volunteering for is the Ringing of the Bell campaign for the Salvation Army. At the top are Michelle and Bart Bleuel and new friends as they were accepting donations from the good folks in the community of Ventura. Below them are member Sally Bodine and President Jerry Deal and friends they made at their Bell Ringing location.
