Hello Leaders!

April showers bring May flowers. We certainly have had our share of rain this season! For our Spring Break, Mark and I traveled to Quantico, Virginia to see our oldest son, Tyler, graduate from the Marine Corps Officer Candidate School (OCS), and yes, it was raining (and very cold) during the outdoor graduation ceremony. The proud Mom in me will brag a little to say that Tyler ranked #2 in the entire company (over 325 candidates) and received the Gung Ho award which is voted on by his peers.

May is Kiwanis Membership Month. Kiwanis International has prepared public relations, branding and messaging material you can use to help tell your club's story and to share your message with your community. There is a plethora of resources and communications material available on the Kiwanis website. How are you sharing your district or club's Kiwanis story? Learn how to best promote your club with Buzz Builder, Kiwanis International's monthly PR newsletter and video series. Buzz Builder offers examples of how other clubs have used media and public relations to place stories in newspapers, on television and with radio stations. It also includes tips from industry insiders. Take a look at this link to get some fresh ideas: <https://www.kiwanis.org/clubs/member-resources/media-relations/buzz-builder>. Want to receive future issues of Buzz Builder in your inbox? Email: PR@kiwanis.org.

As a reminder, we still need a Lt. Governor Elect candidate, so please consider stepping up to this fun and rewarding position for Division 42.

With gratitude,

Uté

Ute's Super Easy 2-Ingredient Mexican Crock-Pot Chicken

4 boneless skinless chicken breasts or 6 boneless skinless chicken thighs

(This is not an exact recipe...you can use more or less chicken, just adjust the next ingredient accordingly.)

1 large container (at least 16 oz.) of your favorite jarred salsa such as La Victoria or Pace (not fresh salsa)

-Put chicken in crock-pot

-Cover completely with jarred salsa

-Cook on low for approximately 8 hours, or on high for approximately 4-5 hours (until very tender)

-Shred chicken with two forks

-Wait 5 minutes for juice to absorb into shredded chicken

-Add more salsa if it seems too dry

-Use the chicken meat in tacos, enchiladas, burritos, in a casserole, on a salad, in tortilla soup, or in any dish which requires flavorful shredded chicken.

-I've also made this with pork loin and jarred salsa verde which was equally delicious.

-This is a super moist and flavorful recipe, with very little effort. Enjoy!

Camarillo

Allen Grizzard-Paul Reporting

In April we were very pleased to sign up a new member. Three of our members also attended the KIWIN'S DCON at the Westin Hotel, LAX. Our District has a lot to be proud of with such strong SLP's. This was certainly the case at this convention. Although Turquoise Div. is one of the smallest divisions in Cal-Nev-Ha, the top three elected positions came from our division.

Also, we must be very proud of our very own member, Karen Kikuchi, who received the "Advisor of the Year Award." Karen works really hard as Turquoise Div. Regional Advisor as well as looking after Rancho Campana KIWIN'S, and I can't think of anyone more worthy of this award.

Even the keynote speaker, rap artist DANaKaDAN, who worked with the White House on their initiative for Asian Americans and Pacific Islands, was a past Turquoise Div. Lt. Gov. and graduated from Camarillo High School.

District Board, L - R: Governor Luci Wong, Rancho Campana H.S.; Secretary Emily Lau, Camarillo H.S.; Treasurer Allison Joaquin, Rancho Campana H.S.; and the Bulletin Editor (didn't catch his name.)
Who says winning an election isn't fun? Everyone was so excited.

Karen Kikuchi, Advisor of the Year

Hazel Villapando receives Top Lt. Gov. Award from Anna Wu

Moorpark

Ute Van Dam Reporting

CW from L: Moorpark Kiwanians know how to party at our monthly socials; host Jim and Mark; Joanne and host Emily; Deb and Barb; our newest honorary member Moorpark members Bryan, Deb, Joanne, and Barb volunteer at Simi Valley's Round*Up.

Oxnard

Cuauhtemoc Solorio Reporting

The Kiwanis Club of Oxnard hosted the April DCM, held at the California Lutheran University Center in Oxnard. Past Governor Roy Talley presented a Dunlap Fellowship to Key Club Div. 42-West Lt. Gov. Sofia Barajas. Past President and Lt. Gov. Elect Rodney Medina received the Lt. Governor's USA award. Sergio Martinez presented the program about the Seaside Cowboys, and organization founded by his brother, Carlos. Their mission is to enrich the lives of the youth in our community by providing a safe environment that fosters inclusiveness, acceptance of all, and encourages empowerment by way of teaching positive, social, and cultural life lessons through "hands-on horsemanship." Past Governor Gary Gray won the drawing for a treasure chest key, and it opened - delivering him the cumulative cash prize.

The South Coast

Julie Bischoff Reporting

The Kiwanis Club of The South Coast finally had a meeting on Monday, April 10th. In attendance were 5 of us, Wes Jackson, Rick Brown, Joe Bailey, Ed Stevenson, and Julie Bischoff. We discussed the future of the BBQ Trailer, the BBQ Season, and the Club. Wes is contacting the Boy Scouts locally regarding a possible event.

Santa Barbara

Walt Browne & Lauren Loza Reporting

Santa Barbara Kiwanians volunteered at the Special Olympics, held at the "Thunderdome" on the UCSB campus. Teams from 8 counties participated. L - R: Roger Deck, Walt Browne, Cindy Toohey

The Aktion club of Santa Barbara presents a donation to the Parks and Recreation department to sponsor the spring fling dance. They also presented a donation to Special Olympics for the polar plunge fundraising event.

The Kiwanis club of Santa Barbara volunteered for the Special Olympics bocce ball tournament. Members of the Aktion club participated.

Simi Valley

Shelley Howard Reporting

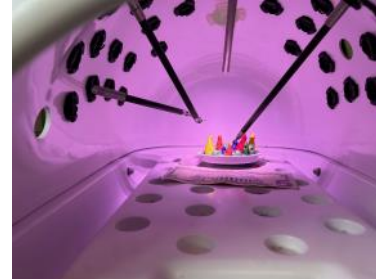

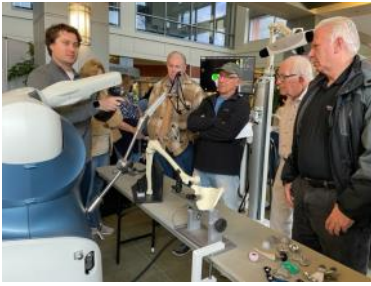

Our Simi Valley Kiwanis Club hosted a wonderful free Easter Breakfast at the Simi Valley Senior Center where we cooked and served a yummy breakfast of eggs, bacon, sausage, pancakes, and fruit cups to the seniors. The event was made even more special with the help of our Service Leadership clubs. The Builders Clubs served food to the guests, and our K-Kids Clubs made the placemats and cards.

Our Round Up Country Music Festival was a great event, thanks to the people who came to enjoy the music and the many volunteers from our community who helped us make this day run smoothly!

Thousand Oaks

John Prescott Reporting

Several members of the Thousand Oaks Kiwanis Club attended a robotics symposium at Los Robles Hospital and Medical Center last month. Members had heard about advancements in surgical techniques using robotics from one of our program speakers, and this was a chance to see the equipment up close. They got a chance to manipulate the robot's "hands" - not on a real person, of course.

Thousand Oaks Kiwanians and members of our SLP groups rallied together on April 1 for Kiwanis One Day at Harbor House's food distribution location. Harbor House is a local non-profit serving those who are struggling with food security and other issues. Leading our charge were (left to right in the first photo) Teta Van Ommeren, Sherrill Hyink, Cristy Warner, Gloria Dyok, President Mary Sepe, and Past Lieutenant Governor Bob Engler. Key Clubbers and K-Kids helped us make sandwiches and assisted clients with food pick up. We also collected basic items of need for donation to Lutheran Social Services to benefit the clients they serve.

Ventura Kiwanis hosted the March DCM. Ventura High School Key Club members Emily and Brooke helped serve a lasagna dinner; Carlos gave the inspiration; Jerry gets the USA award from Dave; Kevin Brannon led the program about his Reel Guppy Outdoors organization; Jerry won the drawing - but couldn't unlock the treasure!

L - R: Ventura High School Key Club elects their 2023-24 officers; Kellie Tyndall of the Senior Victim's Unit, Ventura County DA's Office talked about fraud perpetrated on seniors; Ventura Kiwanis hosted a booth at the Ventura chamber of Commerce Spring Business Expo to spread our message.
