2025 Taiwanese Canadian Cultural Festival

Taiwanese Musician Stage

This year's Taiwan-Canada Arts & Culture Festival proudly presents a brand-new feature: the Taiwanese Musician Stage, showcasing the vibrant talent of eight young Taiwanese Canadian musicians!

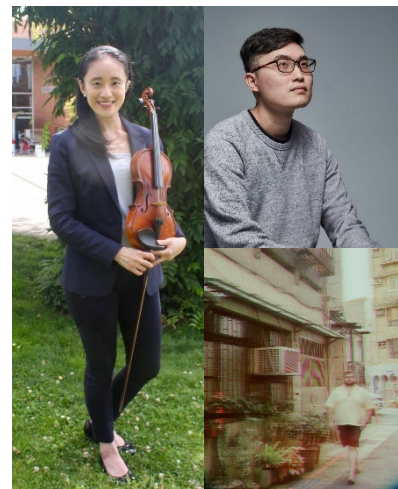

Spanning a range of musical disciplines—violin and vocal performances, cello, harp, composition, electronic music, and DJ artistry—these emerging artists will take the stage over three days of continuous performances that bridge classical traditions with modern innovation.

Whether you're a classical music aficionado or a fan of contemporary and electronic sounds, you'll find your rhythm and resonance on this stage. Join us for an inspiring celebration of culture, creativity, and youthful energy through music!

Performers:

Amanda Hsueh, Al Stein, and Sunmy (Gary Sun)

This trio is a bold fusion of classical elegance, heartfelt songwriting, and cutting-edge electronic sound. Featuring a virtuoso violinist, an expressive singer-songwriter, and a dynamic electronic artist/DJ, this trio crafts music that bursts with color and energy. With their combined expertise, they blend tradition and innovation, creating performances that are both captivating and electrifying.
