

Mr. Turtle

Mrs. rabbit says, you're not very fast, but you're always on time and never last.

Look at my legs how springy they are, I run very fast and I run very far.

Please tell me sir how you are never late, although I am springy, I always wait.

It's no secret Mrs. rabbit you know, it's not important how springy you go.

Mister Robin flew in with a worm in his beak, your legs are small and surely, they're weak.

*Look at my wings how strong they are,
I fly very fast and I fly very far.*

*Please tell me sir how you are never
late, although I am fast I always wait.*

It's no secret Mr. Robbin you know, it's not important how fast you go.

*Grandpa deer with his family of three,
saw the commotion and stopped by the tree.*

Look at our legs how long they are, we leap very high and we leap very far.

Please tell me sir how you are never late, although I leap very high I always wait.

It's no secret Grandpa Deer you know, it's not important how far you go.

Mother squirrel climbed down to a branch up high, your body is heavy you're not very spry.

Look at my feet how quick they are, I climb very fast and I climb very far.

Please tell me sir how you are never late, although I climb very high, I always wait.

Its no secret Mother squirrel you know, it's not important how high you go.

*They all asked together please tell us Mister turtle how you're never late,
and why it is you never wait?*

I tell you all, its no secret how fast you go, its no secret how far you go.

It's no secret how high you go, its no secret how springy you go.

I leave very early so I'm always on time, if you do there's never a line.