AFRICA WEALTH & CULTURE SUMMIT 2026 TO CONVENE GLOBAL LEADERS IN ATLANTA

Theme: From Legacy to Leverage: Building African Wealth Worldwide

ATLANTA, GA — The Africa Wealth & Culture Summit (AWCS) will bring together African Ambassadors, Caribbean Consul Generals, business leaders, investors, entrepreneurs, elected officials, and community stakeholders on Saturday, November 14, 2026, at the Morehouse College Martin Luther King Jr. International Chapel in Atlanta, Georgia.

Hosted in partnership with the Liberia Chamber of Commerce in the Americas, and the Africa America Business Exchange Chamber of Commerce, the summit will serve as a premier platform for advancing international trade, investment, entrepreneurship, innovation, and cultural exchange between Africa, the Caribbean, and the Diaspora.

Under the theme, "From Legacy to Leverage: Building African Wealth Worldwide," attendees will participate in high-level discussions on economic development, artificial intelligence, global partnerships, youth entrepreneurship, infrastructure, renewable energy, and cross-border business opportunities.

A key feature of the summit will be diplomatic and business forums designed to foster collaboration among governments, investors, corporations, chambers of commerce, educational institutions, and community organizations. Participants will also engage in B2B matchmaking sessions, networking opportunities, cultural showcases, and investment-focused discussions.

"AWCS is more than a conference—it is a platform for building meaningful partnerships that drive economic growth, create opportunities, and strengthen connections across Africa, the Caribbean, and the global Diaspora," said Stephanie Logan-Settro, Executive Director of the Liberia Chamber of Commerce in the Americas and Summit Organizer.

Organizers anticipate participation from leaders and organizations representing multiple countries and sectors, positioning Atlanta as a gateway for international engagement and economic collaboration.
