Married 25 years this July, Michael and Coloma Cox minister as one — combining clinical expertise, faith-rooted wisdom, and lived experience to speak to the real challenges couples and families face. They have served across churches, marriage workshops, conferences, and mentoring settings, bringing a rare combination of professional credibility, cultural fluency, and authentic partnership that resonates deeply in faith communities. Their shared mission: to help families heal, couples thrive, and generations be transformed by the grace of God.

Michael Cox

LICENSED COUNSELOR · MINISTER · AUTHOR

Michael Cox brings 30 years of experience working with individuals, teens, and families across ministry and clinical practice. A Licensed Professional Counselor Supervisor and Ordained Minister, he is a pioneer in applying the Restoration Therapy Model (RTM) with adolescents — helping families break generational cycles through emotional healing and self-regulation.

Michael served 13 years in vocational ministry as Youth Pastor, Associate Pastor, and Lead Pastor before founding WLP Counseling PLLC and MSC Services LLC. He is a keynote speaker, trainer, published author, and a core team member of The Hideaway Experience Marriage Intensives since 2019.
