

Meet Patty Scott

Patty Scott
Author
Tax Preparer
Bookkeeper

During her life, Patty Scott felt alone despite all of the people who were around her. While she felt alone, she had forgotten that she wasn't alone. God was always there for her. She forgot she could talk to God anytime, day or night, and he would listen to her words and prayers. He was always there to help her.

Patty learned that through all things she faced in life—even during bad times--good always came out of them. But it was through her love of and faith in God, the guidance he gave her, that Patty found healing and renewed trust in God and others.

Her journey to walk with God and how to learn how to trust, have compassion and most of importantly “Let go let God” is featured in her first of several books including her first book, The Porcelain Rose: And the Hidden Truth and her newly released book Having Coffee with the Special One.

To help spread God's message and blessings to others, Patty founded Give “God” His Glory Publishing, LLC.

Patty is a loving wife of over 42 years, mother of three loving children, grandmother of nine wonderful grandchildren, daughter and sister to seven siblings. When she's not busy with her family, Patty is overseeing her business, PS Tax Specialist, LLC in Texas. An avid traveler, she still has many magical places she wants to visit. Patty also loves to sew and quilt.
