

2022 Hive Theft Reports

Brownings Honey

Stolen: 160 double deep, white hives on 4 way pallets. The stencil is Brownings Honey. They were stolen from an orchard on Avenue 7 and Road 21 in Madera county California.

Location: Madera County, CA

When: Late Jan/Early Feb

Contact: Zac Browning, 701-320-6942 or Madera County Sheriff's Department, 555-658-2555

T&D Honey Bee

Stolen: 144 hives from South Valley Farm near Wasco on Jan 28th or 29th. The hives are a mix of olive green and white boxes. Some of the boxes are stenciled with T & D Honey Bee. $10k-$20k reward for information leading to the recovery of the hives.

Location: North Bakersfield/Wasco

When: January 28th/29th

Contact: Ryan Maxwell, 605-219-7228 or Kern County Sheriff's office, 661-391-7500

Kutik Honey

Stolen: 56 hives stolen in Madera County off of HWY 145, just North of Ave 9. Hives are 10 frame double deeps owned by Kutik Honey of South Carolina. Hives are of various colors as indicated in the photos. All box ends and pallet rails are branded with "Kutik".

Location: Madera County off of HWY 145, just North of Ave 9

When: January 22nd - January 31st

Contact: Ryan Cosyns, 559-232-2200

Adam Manson

Stolen: 8 hives stolen in Colusa County, black tape on bottom hole.

When: Late Jan/Early Feb

Contact: Colusa County Sheriff's Office, 530-458-0200

