About the role

- Part-time role across Wiltshire, B&NES and Somerset (days/hours to be agreed)
- A varied and interesting caseload
- Working with children and young people with neurodivergence, learning disabilities, SEMH, trauma, attachment challenges and other complex needs
- High level of professional autonomy
- Regular support and guidance from an experienced Paediatric OT
- Opportunities to be involved in service development

What we offer

-  Competitive salary (pro-rata for part-time hours)
-  Varied and meaningful work
-  Regular supervision and professional development
-  Opportunities to develop new services and contribute ideas
-  The chance to make a real difference for children, families and schools

Ayres Sensory Integration (ASI) practitioner qualification is essential.

We are looking for an OT who is confident working independently, managing their own caseload, with experience of working in community, school and home settings.
