Oh Lips, this is not going to be good enough. If you want out of this mess you've made I'm going to need some things:

1. All communications between you and the ecosystem since you got involved.
2. A public apology
3. a written promise to never sue me or mention my name ever again.

If those things are done I will consider not going after you for vexatious litigation and the publishing of defamatory and disgusting video. If these things are not done, turn the music up! We are just getting ready to dance!
