ABOUT GLOBAL STAR MANAGEMENT SOLUTIONS, LLC

Global Star Management Solutions, LLC (GSMS) was founded by our Chief Executive Officer (CEO) Kevin E. Bonner, who is a 21-year retired Senior Non-Commissioned Officer from the United States Air Force. His military career coupled with a 9 years of service as a former federal government contractor brings 30 years of experience in our core capabilities. With our CEO residing in close proximity to military installations in North Texas, our leadership is strategically aligned to leverage his extensive network of well-versed managers and technical teaming partners who possess the expertise to work closely with our clients and customers anytime and anywhere.

Global Star delivers customized solutions in Facilities Management, Logistics Management, Information Technology, and key essential areas of Administrative Management. We mobilize subject matter experts who develop executable solutions that are sustainable for any organization. Our professionals cultivate a culture of teamwork. We pride ourselves on listening to the needs of our clients and aim to always exceed expectations.
