Happy September, crafty friends! What are you in the mood for this month? As Fall approaches, for me it's shopping, organizing and sipping coffee while I craft.

There is a whole batch of great new papers, stamps and crafting kits available from Stampin' Up! I ordered several new things, it was really hard to pick just a few, and will be using them in upcoming card buffet kits. My top three include a beautiful nativity scene stamp, a Fluffy Squirrel punch and stamp set and a gingerbread man die set. You can check out all the new products here: Blueberrycanary.stampinup.net and please let me know if there is something you would like to see added to upcoming events, kit together's or card buffets!

Upcoming events to plan for are listed below. My next card buffet is coming up tomorrow, September 5th, there is still room if you would like to come.

This week we're ordering kits now for the September 28th Scrapbooking Day and the September 30th Fall Kit together.

Time to order the 2025 Create A Card Advent kit!

I'm offering something new this year - a kit of 24 different cards so you can make one every day in December while you count down to Christmas. Plan now to give yourself a little creative 'me time' during the holidays. This would also be a fabulous gift for a crafty friend or family member.

The first week of cards will be Christmas themed, the rest will cover birthdays, thank you and other occasions.

I'm taking pre-orders now. There will be a limited number of kits available. A $10 deposit secures your spot. Contact me at tina@blueberrycanary.com if you'd like a kit which will cost $75. The kits can be picked up locally or shipped to you for an additional $10. The kits will be shipped in November.

In the kit you will receive 24 individual packets with the card base, envelope, pre-cut papers and embellishments along with a picture of the completed card and instructions for each. You will supply the adhesives needed to assemble the cards.

An adhesive add-on kit will also be available for an additional cost.

There will be a private Facebook group for those who buy the kits for additional instruction, discussion and sharing your completed projects. I especially love when people kick it up a notch with their own design or added embellishments.

If you'd like to sign up for this kit, email me at tina@blueberrycanary.com
