Characters Uncle (Larry) Grandpa: Help children in need. He has an L-shaped head, a pink nose, a talking red fanny pack, an accessory hat, and black leather pants with colored suspenders. He is very infantile and unintelligent, but has the ability to create clones of himself. Say hello very often. Fanny Pack: Uncle Grandpa's talking pouch contains many items, sometimes larger than himself. In the episode "Belli Brothers," the inside of the fanny pack can be seen, which appears to be from another dimension.
Mr. Gus: An emotionless dinosaur millions of years old who heals the party. He is often unfazed by his uncle-grandfather's activities and often discourages him from doing such things. Pizza Steve: A very selfish pizza cutter who is always making up stories to get attention or as an excuse. He claims to have a black belt in Italian karate. He often just calls Uncle Grandpa "Uncle G". Realistic Huge Flying Tiger: This is a huge flying tiger that leaves a rainbow trail as it flies. It wasn't drawn, but it's a picture of a real tiger. Her personality oscillates between that of a teenager, a house cat and a real tiger.

Production and Publishing The series is produced by Cartoon Network and Rough Draft Studios and directed by Audie Harrison. The idea of the series belongs to Peter Browngardt, the producer is Rossitsa Likomanova. The music was composed by Mike Conte and Tommy Meehan, with artistic direction by Bill Flores and Mark Bodnar.
