

“READY & STEADY:

How Revelation Trains Disciples to Live Watchful, Faithful, and Unshakable”

Revelation isn't just “_____.” It's Jesus discipling the Church, teaching us how to stay faithful, spiritually _____, and focused on Him no matter what the world is doing.

Why it's important for all disciples

- It centers disciples on Jesus (Revelation is the “revelation of Jesus Christ,” not just events).
- It trains us to endure with wisdom and courage.
- It calls the Church to holiness and steadfast love - no drifting, _____.

Key Scriptures

- Revelation 1:3 - blessing for those who read, hear, and _____
- Revelation 1:17-18 - Jesus is alive forever and holds authority
- Revelation 2:4-5 - return to first love (a disciple heart-check)
- Revelation 3:15-16, 19-20 - _____ + Jesus knocking (discipleship correction + invitation)
- Revelation 19:11-16 - Jesus the victorious King (discipleship hope and confidence)

Revelation 1:3 (NKJV)

“Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of this _____ and keep those things which are written in it; for the time is _____.”

What it means (and why it matters for disciples)

1) “Blessed is he who reads...”

In the early church, not everyone owned a scroll—so one person would read it aloud to the group. Jesus is saying: there is a real _____ attached to opening this book.

Not a blessing for being “end-times smart,” but for being a _____ who listens to Jesus.

Discipleship takeaway: A disciple isn’t just fed by sermons; they’re fed by _____. Revelation isn’t a book to avoid; it’s a book that awakens and strengthens believers.

2) “...and those who hear the words of this prophecy...”

“Hear” in the Bible often means more than sound hitting your ears. It means to receive it, take it _____, and let it _____ you.

Revelation was meant to be heard by the _____ as a message from Jesus to keep them steady, _____ and encouraged.

Discipleship takeaway: We don’t read Revelation like spectators watching a movie. We hear it like disciples receiving _____ from the King.

3) “...and keep those things which are written in it...”

This is the big one. The blessing isn’t just for reading or hearing, it’s for
_____.

To “keep” means to guard, hold fast, obey, and _____.

So, what are we “keeping” in Revelation?

- Keep _____ first
- Keep your faith steady (don’t compromise)
- Keep your _____ strong (don’t bow to fear or culture)
- Keep your _____ (keep overcoming, keep following)

Discipleship takeaway: Revelation is not a puzzle to solve; it's a discipleship manual to live.

4) "...for the time is near."

This does not mean we set dates or panic. It means the message is _____ and relevant, not distant information for "someday." Jesus is basically saying: "Church, stay _____. Stay _____ to Me."

Discipleship takeaway: "Near" produces readiness, not fear. It calls disciples to live as Jesus matters _____ because He does.

"Revelation 1:3 tells us there's a blessing for the disciple who reads the Word, hears it with a surrendered _____, and keeps it through _____ because Jesus is calling His Church to stay ready, faithful, and close."

 - What has distracted me - fear, entertainment, busyness, comfort?
 - What is Jesus telling me to strengthen right now?

Revelation grows FAITHFUL disciples

Meaning: Faithful disciples _____. They keep following Jesus when it's hard, when it's uncomfortable, when it's _____, and when it costs something.

What Revelation teaches us about faithfulness

- Revelation is filled with Jesus telling believers to overcome -not by strength in themselves, but by staying loyal to Him.

 - _____ (staying set apart)

Question:

What competes for my worship? ____ You Answer Here _____ (time, attention, money, fear, relationships, comfort)

“Revelation trains _____ disciples. It makes us watchful, so we don’t drift, faithful so we don’t quit, and worshiping so Jesus stays first. This isn’t just information, this is _____.”

Family, tonight we learned something powerful.

Revelation isn't a book for the "super spiritual," it's a book for disciples. Revelation 1:3 reminds us that there is a blessing when we read the Word, hear the Word, and keep the Word. That means we don't just collect information, we _____ with obedience.

So, as we close, let this be our discipleship decision:

- We will stay watchful, awake in prayer, alert in the Spirit, and grounded in truth.
- We will stay faithful, enduring with Jesus, not quitting when life gets heavy, and not compromising when culture gets loud.
- We will stay worshiping, keeping Jesus first, because when Jesus is first, everything else finds its _____.

Revelation calls us back to the center: Jesus is Lord. Jesus is victorious. Jesus is coming. And because the time is near, we don't live in fear; we live in readiness. We don't live distracted, we live devoted. We don't live lukewarm, we live on fire, close to the One who knocks and invites us into deeper fellowship, AMEN!
