01-06-2026	Delay in filing returns by cooperative societies condoned; Section 80P benefit cannot be denied on technical grounds.- T943 Vickrapandiyam Primary Agricultural Co-operative Credit Society Ltd. v. Chief Commissioner of Income-tax	Facts: Cooperative societies eligible for the Section 80P deduction filed their income-tax returns belatedly due to audit delays, administrative issues, and COVID-related disruptions. They sought condonation of delay under CBDT Circulars 13/2023 and 14/2024. The Chief Commissioner rejected the applications for want of certain particulars, prompting the societies to approach the HC. Decision: The HC held that the authorities adopted an excessively technical approach contrary to the object of the CBDT circulars. The delay in filing returns was treated as arising from genuine hardship and deserved condonation. The rejection orders were set aside, and the societies were allowed to pursue assessments and appeals with the benefit of condoned delay.	W.P.(MD)Nos. 7261 to 7276 of 2026 and others
29-05-2026	Statutory Pre-Deposit Requirement Not a Ground to Bypass GST Appeal Mechanism.- PEI Industries v. Union of India	Facts: The petitioner challenged a Section 74 demand order, claiming that State GST authorities had already closed proceedings u/s 73 on the same set of facts and documents. The petitioner alleged violation of Section 6(2)(b), denial of adequate hearing, and improper appreciation of evidence by the Central GST authorities. The Revenue argued that an effective appellate remedy was available and that Sections 73 and 74 operate independently. Decision: The Court held that proceedings u/s 73 and 74 are separate and independent, and closure u/s 73 does not bar action u/s 74. Questions relating to appreciation of evidence and additional documents can be examined by the appellate authority. As an efficacious statutory appeal was available, the writ	W.P. (C) No. 7725 of 2026 CM APPL. No. 37364 of 2026

		petition was dismissed, and the petitioner was relegated to the appellate remedy.
29-05-2026	Non-Supply of Relied-Upon Documents Before Adjudication Violates Natural Justice; GST Demand Order Set Aside.- Sai Auto Mobiles v. Commissioner Central Goods Service Tax and Central Excise	Facts: The petitioner challenged a GST demand order passed u/s 74 on the ground that copies of the Relied Upon Documents (RUDs) were not supplied despite a specific request. The department neither decided the application seeking the documents nor furnished the requested records before passing the order. The petitioner argued that non-supply of RUDs prevented it from effectively contesting the proposed demand. Decision: The Court held that failure to provide RUDs constituted a violation of natural justice as it impaired the petitioners right to submit an effective defence. Since the revenue could not show that the documents had been supplied, the adjudication process was found to be flawed. The demand order was quashed, and the matter was remanded for fresh adjudication after supplying all relevant documents and affording due opportunity of hearing.	WRIT TAX No. 2698 of 2026
29-05-2026	Section 148 notice valid where period granted for reply under Section 148A(b) excluded from limitation computation- Sunil Bhalla v. Deputy Commissioner of Income-tax	Facts: The AO issued a notice u/s 148A(b) on 28.03.2024 proposing reassessment and granted the assessee time up to 08.04.2024 to submit a reply. Instead of filing a reply, the assessee sought adjournments on 05.04.2024 and again on 15.04.2024. The AO rejected the second adjournment request and treated 15.04.2024 as the deemed date of reply. The AO passed an order u/s 148A(d) and issued a notice u/s 148 on 16.04.2024. The assessee challenged these proceedings before the HC on the ground that they were barred by limitation. Decision: The HC held that, under the fifth and sixth provisos to Section 149, the period allowed to the assessee for filing a reply to a notice u/s 148A(b) must be excluded while computing the limitation period for issuing a reassessment notice. Since the assessee did not file any reply and the adjournment request was rejected on 15.04.2024, that date was rightly treated as the deemed date of filing the reply for the purpose of limitation. As the AO passed the order u/s 148A(d) and issued the notice u/s 148 on 16.04.2024, well before the last permissible date of 22.04.2024, the proceedings were held to be within limitation, and the writ petition was dismissed.	W.P.(C) 15337 of 2024 CM APPL. 64325 of 2024
27-05-2026	Assessment Order Quashed as Personal Hearing and Reply Date Fixed on Same Day Violated Natural Justice.- Jai Durga Readymade Collection v. State of U.P.	Facts: The petitioner challenged an assessment order passed u/s 73 of the GST Act on the ground that no effective personal hearing was granted. The notice date, reply date, and hearing date were fixed on the same day, making it impossible for the petitioner to meaningfully respond. The petitioner alleged violation of natural justice and relied on judicial precedent mandating a personal hearing before adverse GST orders. Decision: The HC held that Section 75(4) requires	WRIT TAX No. 838 of 2026

		grant of personal hearing before passing an adverse order. Since the hearing date and reply date coincided, the petitioner was denied a meaningful opportunity of being heard. The assessment order was quashed, and the matter was remanded to the assessing authority for fresh consideration after granting a proper personal hearing.
26-05-2026	IGST Refund on Postal Exports Cannot Be Denied Due to Absence of Prescribed Procedure- IBA Crafts (P.) Ltd. v. Union of India	Facts: The petitioners exported goods through authorised Foreign Post Offices, paid IGST on eligible exports, and claimed a refund under the GST framework. Although all export proceeds were received and supporting documents were furnished, the refund claims were not processed due to the alleged absence of a prescribed procedure for postal exports. After repeated representations failed to yield results, the petitioners filed a writ petition seeking directions for grant of the pending IGST refunds. Decision: The Court held that the petitioners possessed a statutory right to IGST refund on eligible zero-rated exports. It ruled that administrative gaps or failure of the Board to prescribe a procedure could not be a ground to deny or delay refund claims. The customs authorities were directed to process the refund claims, and the Court expressed serious displeasure over the continued inaction of the concerned authorities.	W.P. (C) No. 3218 of 2024
25-05-2026	Revenue Precluded from Raising Fresh Contention on Netting of Appreciation Before High Court- Principal Commissioner of Income-tax v. Karnataka Bank Ltd.	Facts: Karnataka Bank Ltd. claimed a deduction for diminution/depreciation in the value of its investment portfolio while computing its taxable income. The AO disallowed the claim on the ground that depreciation should be adjusted against appreciation in other securities. The Tribunal allowed the assessees claim, and when the Revenue raised the issue of netting off appreciation before the HC, it was rejected as the issue had not been raised before the Tribunal. Decision: The HC held that the Revenue could not raise the issue of netting off appreciation for the first time in appeal since it was not argued before the Tribunal. The SC found no valid ground to interfere with the HCs judgment under Article 136 of the Constitution. Accordingly, the SLP filed by the Revenue was dismissed, and the decision remained in favour of the assessee-bank.	Special Leave to Appeal (C) No(s). 18972 of 2026
22-05-2026	Demand for IGST Refund Reversal Quashed After Omission of Rule 96(10).- Techno Waxchem (P.) Ltd. v. Union of India	Facts: The assessee, an exporter, imported inputs duty-free under the Advance Authorisation Scheme and claimed IGST refunds on zero-rated exports amounting to about Rs. 6.28 crore. The department alleged that such refunds violated Rule 96(10) of the CGST Rules and initiated recovery proceedings u/s 74. During the pendency of the proceedings, Rule 96(10) was omitted by Notification No. 20/2024 without any saving clause, and the assessee challenged the demand. Decision: The Court held that the entire proceedings	WPA No. 13772 of 2025

		were based solely on Rule 96(10), which had been omitted from the statute book. Section 6 of the General Clauses Act was not applicable to save proceedings arising from the omission of a rule. Accordingly, the Order-in-Original and all consequential refund recovery proceedings were quashed.
22-05-2026	Wilful Failure to Deposit TDS After Service of Notice Justifies Prosecution u/s 276B- Vrindavan Pathak v. Union of India	Facts: The assessee-firm deducted TDS on interest payments but failed to deposit the same with the Government. Notices u/s 221(1) and 201(1A) were issued, but the applicants allegedly failed to comply, resulting in penalty proceedings and prosecution u/s 276B. The applicants approached the HC seeking quashing of the criminal proceedings, disputing service of notice and the validity of prosecution. Decision: The Court found that the notice had been duly served, giving the applicants deemed knowledge of their legal obligations. Failure to comply despite such notice constituted a prima facie case of wilful default u/s 276B. As the dispute regarding service of notice was a factual issue requiring trial, the prosecution proceedings could not be quashed, and the application was dismissed.	APPLICATION U/S 482 No. 17496 of 2017
22-05-2026	Reassessment Quashed as Alleged LTCG Exemption Never Claimed- Principal Commissioner of Income-tax-9 v. Nikunj Dhanuka	Facts: The assessee filed its return of income for AY 2012-13, which was processed u/s 143(1) of the Income-tax Act, 1961. The AO reopened the assessment based on information from the Investigation Wing alleging that the assessee had claimed exemption u/s 10(38) on LTCG from the sale of shares of a particular company. However, records showed that the assessee had not earned any LTCG from those shares and had actually disclosed and paid tax on the STCG in the original return. Decision: The HC found that there was no material on record to justify the AOs belief that the assessee had claimed an LTCG exemption u/s 10(38). Since the very basis of reopening was factually incorrect, the reassessment proceedings were held to be unjustified. The SC declined to interfere with the HCs order and dismissed the Revenues SLP, thereby ruling in favour of the assessee.	SLP (CIVIL) Diary No. 21732 of 2026
