

Scenarios to discuss...

(Remember to only use the ones you feel are appropriate to the level of your children)

Scenario 1

A girl in year 6 sends a picture of herself to her boyfriend who is in year 7. They have been dating for 6 months. In the photo the girl has no top on. Her boyfriend tells her he likes the photo and he will never share it with anyone.

- What has the girl done wrong? What has the boy done wrong?
 - What else could go wrong in this scenario?
- The photo has been sent, this cannot be changed. What should they both do now?

Scenario 2

A group of 13 year old girls like to chat in a chatroom. There are a number of boys in the chatroom who they have never met. One of the boys dares the girls to send a naked photo. He tells them they should not be ashamed of their bodies.

- What could go wrong in this scenario?
 - What should the girls do?

Scenario 3

A 13 year old boy receives a naked picture of a boy he does not know. He does not recognise the number that the picture has come from. He finds the photo funny so he forwards it to a number of his friends.

- What did he do wrong?
- What should he have done?

Scenarios to discuss...

(Remember to only use the ones you feel are appropriate to the level of your children)

Scenario 4

A girl in year 6 has been talking to a boy online for 3 months. She has never met the boy in real life but she really likes him. She makes her laugh and she feels comfortable talking to him online. One day he tells her that he would really like to see a naked picture of her. She starts to feel uncomfortable.

- What should she do?
- What else could go wrong in this scenario?

Scenario 5

A 15 year old boy has been dating his girlfriend for 2 years. For a while, his friends have been joking about how he should ask her for a naked picture. He laughs at them but secretly he thinks he might ask her.

- What could go wrong in this scenario?
- What should the boy do?

Scenario 6

A 14 year old girls has found out that her best friend has been sending naked pictures of herself to boys online. Her friend has made her promise that she won't tell anybody.

- What is wrong with this scenario?
- What should the girl do?