WHO WE ARE

SOCOM Athlete LLC is a combat-veteran owned, nationwide program & vast social media/online community providing individuals of all ages in pursuit of Special Operations career-fields a full-spectrum resource to maximize readiness via: nationwide hosting of events, demographic-based online training groups, leadership skills & team communication development, workout programming, physical training/mentoring, career resources, and curriculum development.

SOCOM Athlete's social media community totals over 150,000 active followers among Instagram accounts. SOCOM Athlete's podcast "Send Me" ranks in the top 250 Health & Fitness podcasts in America by Apple Inc.

SOCOM Athlete's online Group Training Chats utilize the App "Telegram Messenger," & feature free membership access. With over 1,200 members in 35 locations across the United States, members have the ability to train & bond with a team of like-minded individuals in their city/state.

SOCOM Athlete CEO/Founder Jason Sweet is a former Air Force Pararescueman (PJ), former U of A Football & GCU baseball player, and holds a bachelor's degree in Biochemistry. Jason spent over 2 years collaborating with the Science of Sport © developing human performance & STEM Education curriculum for the NFL, Arizona Diamondbacks, and more; teaming up with owner Dr. Ricardo Valerdi to develop the DoD/NCAA grant-winning smartphone app, "BrainGainz." Jason was then hired as a human performance researcher & consultant for the DSRI (Defense & Security Research Institute).

In addition to Jason, SOCOM Athlete instructors/mentors feature highly credentialed personnel including: Isaiah Staley (retired Navy SEAL Officer & USSOCOM Warrior Games athlete), Mike Hazle (former USAF CCT, 2-time US Olympian, & Human Performance Coach), SFC Charley Stetson (Active Duty Green Beret, 20th SFG & Lancero/Columbian Commando), and many others. SOCOM Athlete has partnered & received sponsorship from organizations such as 20th Special Forces Group, Air Force Special Warfare Recruiting, USMC Recon & Sniper Foundation, & more.

Hundreds of SOCOM Athlete students have gone on to join the United States military. Over 50 SOCOM Athlete students have graduated special operations training to become Navy SEALs, Army Rangers, Green Berets, Recon Marines, Navy SARC, USAF PJ, CCT, TACP, and more. Having received over 200 five-star customer reviews on various online platforms, Jason & his instructors' effectiveness for increasing the quality & quantity of candidates entering Special Operations careers makes SOCOM Athlete America's #1 resource in special operations career preparation.
