The Family of David Alfred Kessler and Mary Anneminia Walburn

David Alfred Kessler was born January 21, 1862 in a log cabin on what is now the Old VanTassel Farm. John Kessler and Jim Hand had lived on the land before VanTassels. It was located at Oklahoma, Pa. , Sandy Twp., Clearfield Co. David was employed in the lumber business, being affiliated with both the DuBois and Van Tassel interests. Later he was head carpenter at the B&O No. 2 Shaft for many years retiring in 1925, at 65.

David Kessler bought the homestead on top of the hill from the David Walburn place of 20 acres and from Jim Hand Farm, 15 acres. On top of the hill next to the Postlewaite Farm, a Catholic Priest who owned some land had started a cemetery and buried a woman, man, and child in 1918 near the fence.

David A. Kessler married Mary A. Walburn on January 13, 1884. Mary was born on April 14, 1865 in Sandy Township. On their 59th wedding anniversary they had 106 direct descendants, 13 children, 53 grandchildren, and 40 great-grandchildren. Mary A. Kessler died October 23, 1943 and was buried at Salem Cem. David A. Kessler died January 18, 1951.

The Kessler Ancestors were to have been from Germany or Holland in the area near the border of these two countries. They were called Pennsylvania Dutch. David A. Kessler's father was John D. Kessler whose farm was where Curtis Kessler lived. He was in the Civil War, enlisted 9-5-1864. a Pvt. Co. . 2nd Reg. Pa. Inf. was a 34 year old born in Schuylkill, Pa. He was a Farmer.

Mary A. Walburn's father was David Walburn, whose home was the Hoover Place. where James Braund now lives. David was in the Civil War, enlisting on 1-11-1865. He was a Pvt. Co. G. 48th Reg. Pa. Inf. was 22 years old and was born in Dauphin, Pa. He was a lumberman. His Father, Simon Walborn lived where the James Thompson Place, now is; the Sarah Overdurff home is now the Kougher Place; Franklin Walburn Place was located by the Lydick Place; Emmanuel Walburn home was by the Kurt Kessler house; Calvin Kessler bought land from the John Kessler Farm, where the tasty freeze store is now. The B. & S. Railroad went through our Kessler Farm in 1903 and the street car went to Sykesville about 1910.

Death Sunday afternoon terminated a marriage that had existed happily for over the past fifty-nine years. Mrs. David Kessler passed away at her home south of DuBois. The above picture was taken of the couple on the occasion of the celebration of their 59th wedding anniversary. Mrs. Kessler is survived by 106 direct descendants, 33 sons and daughters, 53 grandchildren and 40 great grandchildren. Two sons preceded her in death.

58th Wedding Year

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Kessler, life long resident of DuBois area, were both born in Sandy Township. They have 13 living sons and daughters. Mr. Kessler, son of John and Lydia Kessler was born January 21, 1862 and celebrated his 80th birthday. His bride is the daughter of David and Angeline Walburn and was born in Sandy Township on April 14, 1865, on the very day Abraham Lincoln was assassinated in Ford's Theater in Washington DC.

The couple were united in marriage in DuBois on January 13, 1884 by Squire Williams. They took up housekeeping on Jared Street where they lived four years when the fire of June 8, 1888 occurred. A little later they moved into their home near the C & M Junction where they lived for 53 years.

Mr. Kessler followed the woods and mill work until 1903 when he went to work at No. 2 Shaft and worked there for 22 years, retiring in 1925. He served as treasurer of Sandy Township for six years, between 1897 and 1903 and also was inspector of election for 15 years.

The couple are parents of 15 children, 13 who are living; along with 44 grandchildren, and 26 great grandchildren who helped them celebrate the occasion. Surviving children are Mrs. Stella Dunlap, Mrs. Bertha Lyons, Mrs. Mae Kness, William, George, Clarence, Clair, and Leonard all of Sandy Township. Mabel Kessler, Mrs. Elsie Savage, and Mervin of Youngstown, Ohio, Kenneth of Falls Creek, and John of Oil City, Pa.

October 24, 1943

Mrs. Mary A. Kessler, R. D. #1 who has been a resident of DuBois and vicinity since her birth in 1865, passed away Sunday afternoon at 3:10 o'clock as a result of infirmities of old age. She had been in poor health for the past year. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Walburn.

The deceased was a member of the Methodist Church and was a woman held in the highest esteem by a large circle of friends, all of whom will deeply regret to learn of her death. Had she lived until January 13 of next year, Mr. and Mrs. Kessler would have celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary. They were united in marriage January 13, 1884.

The deceased was survived by her husband David Kessler, five daughters and 8 sons as follows: Estella of Oil City, Bill, George, Butch, Clair, Ken, Leonard, all of DuBois, Mae Kness of Sabula, Bertha Lyons of Tonawanda, New York; John of Erie, Pa.; Mrs. Elsie Savage and Mabel Kessler of Youngstown, Ohio; and Mervin of Youngstown, Ohio. Also surviving are 53 grandchildren and 40 great grandchildren, one sister and two brothers; Rose Utzinger, DuBois; Henry Walborn, Butler; and William Walborn of Lincolnville, Pa. Six of the grandsons are in the armed forces, one being overseas. Pending word from the grandsons, no definite funeral arrangements have been made.

A black and white photograph of a group of 14 people, likely a family, posing in front of a house. The group is arranged in two rows: seven people standing in the back and seven people sitting or kneeling in the front. The individuals are dressed in formal attire typical of the early 20th century. The house behind them has a prominent chimney and a large window.

"Monkey John" Overdurff was born in Luthersburg R.D.#, Pa. He was in the Civil War but was A.W.O.L. John was on the No. 2 Shaft Road, when he saw two men coming. He hid underneath the bridge, and when he heard the two men talking, he realized they were looking for him. The one man was in a buggy and the other one was on horseback, stopping to discuss the fifty dollar reward offered for John. John stepped out from under the bridge and pulled up a shotgun and pointed it in their faces and said "I'll shoot both of you before you take me in." They both left in a hurry.

Harry J. Overdurff, the Ossified Wonder.

FIRST "STONE MAN" EXHIBITED AT THEATERS HERE FORTY YEARS AGO

While science continues to struggle and permanently cure or preserve the lives of three persons, Roma Girl; University Student; and the Hendricks boy, Harry J. "Ossified Harry" Overdurff has been apprised of the condition of the seven year old Hendricks boy and the reports that he may die shortly.

Harry is naturally interested in these rare cases because he himself is a 'stone man'. He has been suffering from Inyosistitis Occifica for 33 years and still lives. Though his skin is fairly well preserved, his flesh is so hard that he can support 800 pounds between his forehead and his knees.

Dr. George N. Curtis, who is deeply interested in the seven year old Hendricks boy and who has been one of the leading prominent Columbus, Ohio, doctors who attending the university as a student, said his patient has been under obseravation for about two months, and tests have been made to determine any connection between the malady and the parathyroid glands, which control the calcium of the body. He added that such a link has not as yet been demonstrated.

The first case of this or similar rare disease was recalled in Scranton, Pa., and which has the three cases at deaths door, is was a man known as "Ossified Man." His name could not be ascertained but he was exhibited here 40 years ago and again 38 years ago. The first time was at the old Palace Theater in the 200 block of Lackawanna Avenue, next to what is now Samter's Store, and the second time at the old Davis Wonderland Theater on Linden Street.

He was known as "Ossified Man" and attracted great attention in circus side shows and at 'freak shows' such as were held from time to time at the old Palace and Wonderland Theaters. Many old timers during the past week recalled having seen the "Ossified Man" who was taken to and from his places of exhibition in this city, along with other so called freaks in the wheelchair.

While the "Ossified Man" exhibited here 38 or 40 years ago could talk, though he could not move his lips, "Ossified Harry" of DuBois, Pa., who is now 68 years old and was exhibited at "Ripley's Believe It or Not" Exhibition at the Century of Progress Exhibit in Chicago, Il., last summer, is able to move both lips and jaws. The "Ossified Man" when exhibited here years ago weighted about 75 pounds, and was about 55 years old, while "Ossified Harry" weighs only 70 pounds and lies continually on a table which can be revolved.

Overdurff, or "Ossified Harry", it is said, talks very distinctly and is an intelligent man. He eats regularly and says he has never been sick a day since the ailment was first discovered. He seems very happy and joyful at all times.

Ripley, it was learned, has still another petrified man who he will show at his exhibit in Chicago this coming summer. He is Roy Bard, 50, who began to turn to stone when he was 25 years old. Bard had a job as a telephone linesman. He weight 125 pounds, has never experienced any pain form his rare disease, and has normal heart, lungs, kidneys, liver, and stomach. For a quarter of a century he has lain rigid (in the same position as "Ossified Harry") on a table.

Early in the ninties of the last century an "Ossified Man" (believe to be the one exhibited at the Palace and the Wonderland here) named Bass was exhibited throughtout this country and European countries as one of the attractions of a famous circus. He was in that state since early youth and was always reported to be of a cheerful disposition.

"OSSIFIED HARRY" CALLED TO DEATH

ATHENS, September 23, 1935, Harry J. Overdurff, age 68, widely known as "Ossified Harry" died at the home of his manager, Thomas Pietro, 210 Ann Street at 8:10 p.m.

Mr. Overdurff for many years had a peculiar malady, which caused his body to ossify. Progress of the disease baffled attempts of medicial science to halt the turning of his body to stone. Dr. E. M. Cowell who has been attending Mr. Overdurff stated that death was due to ceberal hemorrhage, with general ossification.

Mr. Overdurff was born at DuBois, Pa. December 25, 1866. He was a coal miner for several years until he was forced to give up active work because of his condition. For the past 13 years he has been exhibited at various fairs, carnivals and expositions including the Century of Progress under Mr. Pietro's management.

Harry J. Overdurff, the Ossified Wonder, the man who turned to stone. "The Mystery of Medical Science" has solidified. His flesh is as hard as rock. He has no chest expansion and cannot move any part of his body except his lips. He can support 800 pounds. He was home on September 2, 1934. The picture was taken at the World's Fair in Chicago IL, and was in Ripley's Believe It or Not. He died of a ceberal hemorrhage on September 23, 1935, at Athens, PA. A special casket was made and he was buried at Athens, PA., where he lived part of the time.
