

This pamphlet was assembled in "1996". It contains the records of Eli Harman born 1829 in DUAPHIN COUNTY, PA. and his children. He moved to Clearfield County Pa. before 1858. We are unable to locate the records of his brothers, sisters, mother and father.

It also contains the records of Eli Harman, his son who married Mary C. Pontious in 1896, their children and their decedents. The Harman family today extends from the Eastern part of United States to the Western.

Material for this pamphlet was furnished by the Harman family, of Clearfield County and their descendants. Information was also obtained from the following:

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oils, my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

World War I vet honored

Charles Harman, seated, inspects a veteran's medal presented to him Wednesday by the Veterans Affairs Medical Center, 135 E. 38th St. On hand for the occasion were, from left, his brothers, Theodore Harman, left, of Wesleyville, and Lewis Harman of Kenmore, N.Y.; his sister, Minnie Porter of Findley Lake, N.Y.; and Bruce Carruthers, medical center associate director. The award was presented on Harman's 95th birthday in recognition of his service during World War I in France, where he was wounded in action. He is a widower with five children and 14 grandchildren. Harman, a native of DuBois, joined the U.S. Army at 17 and served in France during World War I. He was wounded and spent time in six hospitals, including four field hospitals. He became a dairy farmer and later a painter after his return.

Dear Cortez,

Thank you for the information on the Pontius Family that you sent to the Lycoming County Historical Society. The Society passed it along to the Genealogical Society and we will place it in our library.

I wish I could give you some help on the Harman family. I believe that there are several different families by that name that settled in our area. I find them under Harman/Harmon/Herman. We have a book in our library about the Jacob Harman family - I see no relationship to your family. I have been researching an Amos and Henry Harman family for a lady in Florida. Again it appears that there is no relationship.

I copied the grantor and grantee deed indexes for Harman. Perhaps they will be helpful. Since I saw that an Eli H. Harman bought land in Montgomery, I checked the Montgomery Cemetery:

Lot 87 sec 6:

Wm D. Harman, age 44 d. June 29, 1908
Edith Marian Harman d. Mar 2, 1948

Lot 192 sec center:

J. Calvin Harman d. Sept 23, 1940
Mrs. J.C. Harman d. 1947
Miriam Harman d. Apr 14, 1897

Lot 142 sec 9:

Mrs. Eli (Sallie E.) Harman 1869-Jan 28, 1936
Eli H. Harman 1868-Dec 5, 1950
Mildred Golder d/o Eli d. Jan 6, 1978

Lot 42 sec 7

Carl L. Harman, soldier d. Nov 17, 1946
Clay W. Harman, soldier, age 83, 1896-Feb 4, 1972
Ruby A. Harman 1889-1966 "mother"
William R. Harman 1889-1964 "father"

Hope this information is helpful. If you need more extensive research, we charge $15 per hour plus copy costs.

Yours truly,

Robin

201.22

3 March 1945

SUBJECT: Commendation.

TO: Commanding Officer, 863rd Engineer Aviation Battalion, APO 70.

1. The Officers and men of Company B, your organization, who were engaged in reconditioning concrete strip number 2 at Clark Field, are commended for the manner in which this duty was performed.

2. Despite personal danger from enemy artillery fire and our own planes, which were using the undamaged portion of the strip while the repairs were in progress, this detail remained on duty, and successfully accomplished their mission, repairing a badly damaged and much needed air strip. The manner in which the detail handled the Filipino laborers, under the above mentioned dangers, is also exemplary.

3. A copy of this commendation will be given to each Officer and Enlisted man on the detail.
