ご存知ですか？ 子供達に失望した時の対処について教えましょう：多くの青少年は新しい世界へと向いています：プレイデートや登校して直接授業の参加の減少、スポーツ必須条件の変化、マスクの着用、ハグの代わりに手を振る等。この困難な中、物事に変化のある時に子供達と失望した時の対処法について話すとてもよい機会です。私たちへの神の愛、たとえ私達にどのようなこどが起きているのか理解するのに苦労していても、神はそれら全てを通して私たちと共にいて下さることを子供達に伝えましょう。さらに詳しいヒントは、<https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>。

We would like to say Thank you to everyone that helps with our live streamlined Sunday Mass and our prerecorded Sunday and Weekday Masses. We would not be able to have the Masses without the help of our Sunday Ushers who come early to set up the chairs and canopies and help put them away each Sunday. Our Readers, Eucharistic Minister, Sacristan, Musicians and our Camera / Audio Visual Crew. Thank you for all your hard work.

DID YOU KNOW? Teach children about dealing with disappointment. Many young children are facing a whole new world: less playdates, fewer in-person classes, changing sports requirements, wearing masks, waving instead of giving hugs. While this is hard, it's a great time to talk to your children about how to handle disappointment when things change. Talk to your children about God's love for us and how even if we struggle to understand what is happening, God is with us through it all. CONSECRATION TO ST. JOSEPH,
The Wonders of Our Spiritual Father.

By: Rev. Donald H. Calloway, MIC

Drawing on the wealth of the Church's living tradition, Fr. Donald Calloway, MIC, calls on all of us to turn to St. Joseph, entrust ourselves, our Church, and our world to our spiritual father's loving care, and then watch for wonders when the Universal Patron of the Church opens the floodgates of Heaven to pour out graces into our lives today. Definitely a book for our time, Consecration to St. Joseph is dedicated to meeting the challenges of the present moment and restoring order to our Church and our world, all through the potent paternal intercession and care of St. Joseph. This book has everything you need to take your love and devotion to St. Joseph to a whole different level: the first comprehensive 33-day program of consecration to St. Joseph; information on the 10 wonders of St. Joseph; and prayers and devotions to St. Joseph.

Accessible, motivating, this book will kick off a great movement of consecration to our spiritual father and change the world.

About the Author: Father Donald Calloway, MIC, is the vicar provincial and vocation director for the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of Mercy Province of the Marian Fathers of the Immaculate Conception, as well as the author of a number of books. His books Champions of the Rosary: The History and Heroes of a Spiritual Weapon, No Turning Back: A Witness to Mercy, and Under the Mantle: Marian Thoughts from a 21st Century Priest are Catholic bestsellers.

Center for Spiritual Development in Orange: Online Workshop for Men, “Lord, Teach Us to Pray...,” with Fr. Brad Karelus, Saturday, August 29

“Lord, Teach Us to Pray...”: Prayer Practices to Nourish Men: An Online Workshop for Men” with Fr. Brad Karelus, on Saturday, August 29, from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon, on the Zoom platform. This online workshop will explore ways of praying that can feed the spiritual hunger that the men of today experience. Prayer has the power to transform our inner spirit and how we experience God in the movement of everyday life. Sustaining a daily life of prayer that does not demand of us energy we cannot muster, includes familiar and repetitious ritual that is clearly defined and time limited. With this in mind, we will learn about and experience three forms of structured prayer in order to foster a discipline of daily prayer: The Examen of Consciousness: a daily practice of gratitude and discernment of God’s movement in our lives; Centering Prayer: practicing the presence of God and listening for God’s inspiration as to how we might live our lives; The Daily Office/Breviary: as a way of praying throughout the day and reflecting upon the word of God. Cost is $40. To register, or for more information, please contact the Center for Spiritual Development at 714-744-3172; e-mail:

UPCOMING: Online Workshop

Center for Religion and Spirituality at Loyola Marymount University: Free Online Webinar Series for First Responders, "Armor Up, Armor Down: The Inner Life of Cops, Firefighters and Medics," Thursdays, October 8, 15, 22, and 29

The greatest psychological and spiritual challenge to First Responders (police officers, firefighters, and medics) is losing heart for a role they once saw as a great adventure and means of serving society. Recently, many police officers, firefighters, and medics have expressed high levels of frustration amid the social unrest, the pandemic and political divisions. Some are doubting their choice to do this work. This is unfortunate. Their initial instincts were sound. Dedicating one's self to the adventure of serving and helping others on the frontlines of danger, crisis and acute need has always been a noble and worthy calling. It still is. But the intrinsic rewards are not a given nor are they automatic and may be more difficult to realize during these times. These four 90-minute webinars take a different approach to First Responder wellbeing. Rather than focus on breakdown, we present an introduction to the inner life of First Responders – their thoughts, feelings, beliefs, concerns, values and character – and how these are impacted by the role, identity and work. We move beyond the problem-oriented approaches to reframe the role and work as a spiritual path, where adversity is an expectation and experiences are leveraged into personal development, growth, insight, maturity and depth. The sessions are designed to provide insight, guidance and tools to First Responders and those working with them in the roles of peer support, counselor, psychologist, chaplain and leadership. While these sessions are focused on First Responders, they are open to the public. The sessions are free. They will be held as follows:

All on Thursdays, from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

October 8: "Much More Than a Job or Career"

October 15: "Working on the Friendship with Yourself"

October 22: "Rocking with Adversity"

October 29: "Rediscovering and Cultivating Calm"

You are welcome to attend any or all sessions.
