GOD OF PROMISES

God made a promise to Abraham to make his children into a mighty nation. God fulfilled His promises, and He laid out expectations for those who wanted to be his children

Memory Verse:

"Never stop reading this Book of the Law. Day and night you must think about what it says. Make sure you do everything written in it. Then things will go well with you. And you will have great success." Joshua 1:8 (NIV)

Genesis

Exodus

Exodus 14, Parting of the Red Sea The Israelites were the children of Abraham. It looked like they had met their doom at the Red Sea, but God provided a miracle for them. There is nothing that can stop God from fulfilling his plans.

Leviticus - Numbers - Deuteronomy

Deuteronomy 5:1-22, The Ten Commandments Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy contain many instructions for living. They can all be boiled down to these Ten Commandments. God laid down rules for us to follow so we will know how to love him and love others.

Joshua

Joshua 24, Joshua Tells Israel to Serve the Lord After the Israelites received the land God promised them. Joshua reminded the people of God's blessings and tells the people to follow God. There are consequences if we disobey God, but if we choose to follow Him, we will be blessed.

UNIT 2

GOD BLESSES THE FAITHFUL

This next set of books show us that God humbles those who are disobedient but blesses those who faithfully obey God. God wants us to faithfully serve Him and love others.

"Where you go I'll go. Where you stay I'll stay. Your people will be my people. Your God will be my God." Ruth 1:16b (NIV)

Judges

Judges 6:7-24, Gideon Saves Israel Gideon was an unlikely hero. He wasn't a warrior, and he was full of self-doubt, but when he obeyed God, He saved Israel. If we are willing to obey God, He can do great things through us as well.

Ruth

Ruth 1-2, Ruth Meets Boaz Ruth could have gone home and started over after her husband died, but she remained faithful to her mother-in-law. God blessed her faithful heart, and Ruth became part of God's plan for Israel as the great-grandmother of David and a descendant of Jesus.

1 Samuel - 2 Samuel

2 Kings 15:1-7, Azariah (also known as Uzziah - an OK king); 2 Kings 16, Ahaz (a bad king); 2 Kings 18:1-8, Hezekiah (a good king) The kings in the Old Testament included the good, the bad and the ugly. Their stories show us that we can be a positive or negative influence on others. It all depends on whether or not we follow God.

1 Chronicles - 2 Chronicles

2 Chronicles 20:1-30, Jehoshaphat Defeats Moab and Ammon God gave Jehoshaphat some odd directions for battle, but Jehoshaphat obeyed God and gained the victory. We may not understand God's ways, but when we obey God, He will always give us victory.

Nehemiah 2:1-10, Nehemiah Asks to go Home and Rebuild Jerusalem After his people had been humbled by the Lord, Nehemiah led Israel in rebuilding the city of Jerusalem, just as God promised. There are consequences to sin, but when we repent, God will forgive us and restore us.

Esther

Esther 4, Esther Saves her People Esther could have remained silent, but she risked her life to save her people. She was in the right place at the right time, but she also was brave enough to do the right thing. God has a plan that only you can fulfill. Will you do the right thing?

Song of Solomon

Isaiah

Isaiah 9:1-7, "For unto us, a child is born..." Isaiah prophesied at the time when Israel had evil kings. He told the Israelites they would be judged, but he also gave the Israelites the clearest picture of who Jesus would be. His prophecies are a continuation of the promises given to Abraham - a Savior is coming!

Hosea

Hosea 1, Hosea and Gomer

A good parent punishes their child for their disobedience, but they will still love and forgive them. Even though Joel and Amos delivered news of God's punishment, they also promised that God still loved and would forgive Israel.

Obadiah

Obadiah 1, God's Warning to Edom

Obadiah spoke not to the Israelites, but to the people of Edom, who mocked and laughed at the Israelites. Obadiah's warning is one we should heed as well. Don't judge others. Let God be the judge, and focus on your own obedience.

PRAISING HIM IN HARD TIMES

God is gracious and merciful, as he demonstrated by sending Jesus, but He is also just. If we do not choose to obey God, there are consequences for our actions.

Memory Verse:

Micah

Micah 5:1-9, Prophecies About the Messiah

The coolest thing about Micah is that his prophecy led the Magi directly to the baby Jesus. His writings show us that God's plan of salvation was set long before Jesus was born!

Nahum

Nahum 1, God's Promise to Judge Ninevah

Our God is a God of second chances, but when we continually disobey him there are consequences. Nahum's message to Ninevah shows us that while God is slow to judge, He will not stay silent forever. We must choose obedience and turn from sin.

Habakkuk

Habakkuk 1:12-2:20, Habakkuk's Conversation with God

Is it okay to question God when we have worries or doubts? Habakkuk would answer yes! Habakkuk was not afraid to ask God the hard questions, like why he refused to judge evil. In the end, God reminds him that God will judge the unrighteous and lift up the righteous.

PREPARING THE WAY

The final Minor Prophets had two main purposes: to restore the faith of God's people and assure them a Messiah was coming!

Zechariah

Zechariah 11:12-13, Zechariah Predicts the Messiah will be Rejected

Malachi

Malachi 4, Malachi Reminds the People to Have Faith
Malachi was the final prophet of the Old Testament era, and his book was the last to be written. Many years would pass between his time and that of the New Testament, but he was the final prophet to speak before the coming of Jesus. Malachi's message is one of encouragement. He urged the Israelites to have faith, even when the Lord seemed silent. God would fulfill his promises.

A SAVIOR COMES

The New Testament begins with the birth of Jesus. The story of Jesus is told from four different points of view, and when Jesus returns to Heaven, His followers begin growing His church.

Memory Verse:

Luke

Luke 23:26-43, Jesus is Crucified

John

John 21:15-19, Jesus Restores Peter
Peter became so frightened when Jesus was arrested, he denied even knowing Jesus – three times! Jesus sought out Peter to not only forgive him, but restore him to his place as one of the leaders in Christ's new church. Jesus came to forgive our sins and give us new life.

Acts (of the Apostles)

Acts 10, Peter's Vision/Sharing the Good News with Gentiles
Believe it or not, there was a time when the followers of Jesus assumed the gospel was only for the Israelites. God showed Peter and other leaders in the church that Jesus had died for everyone. God wants us to share the good news of Jesus without prejudice to the whole world!

FOLLOWING CHRIST

The letters of Paul give many arguments and explanations about who Jesus is, why He died, and what His death means for us. They are a call to follow Jesus and to grow in our faith together.

Memory Verse:

"But here is how God has shown his love for us. While we were still sinners, Christ died for us." Romans 5:8 (NIRV)

Romans

Romans 5:1-11, Christ Died for Our Sins to Make Us Righteous
Paul's letter to the Roman church lays out a beautiful explanation of how we were sinners and how Christ can forgive our sins. We could not save ourselves from sin, so Jesus died for us so He could give us new life.

1 Corinthians

1 Corinthians 12, One Body, Many Parts
Written to end some quarrels among the church members, 1 Corinthians urges us to be united in God and in love. Paul used the illustration of a body and our body parts to show us that while we are all different, we all have a part to play in God's family.

2 Corinthians

2 Corinthians 9:6-15, The Importance of Giving

1 Thessalonians - 2 Thessalonians

1 Thessalonians 5:1-11, No One Knows When the End Will Come
No one knows when Jesus will return, and no one knows when their time will be up. Paul urges us to stay faithful to God, to avoid false teachings, and to live each day as if it were our last.

SERVE HIM WELL

Paul's final letters are great instruction books for would-be leaders in the church. All four of these leaders urge us to put God first and to live holy and blameless lives.

Memory Verse:

"Don't let anyone look down on you because you are young. Set an example for the believers in what you say and in how you live. Also set an example in how you love and in what you believe. Show the believers how to be pure." 1 Timothy 4:12 (NIRV)

1 Timothy - 2 Timothy

1 Timothy 4, Paul's Instructions to Timothy

Titus

Titus 1:5-9, Paul Tells Titus to Appoint Leaders in the Church
Paul laid out the qualifications for being a leader in the church to his young disciple, Titus. God wants us to follow these same guidelines so we cannot only lead in the church but be strong witnesses for the faith.

Philemon

Philemon v 10-20, Paul Encourages Philemon to Forgive Onesimus
Paul gives us a real life example of how faith in Jesus should change the way we live our life on a daily basis. Hebrews

Hebrews 4:14-16, Jesus is Our New High Priest
Jesus is not a faceless deity speaking from on high. He was a real man who was tempted like we are every day. He is also the Son of God who conquered sin and death. Jesus is the Messiah, and He is the priest of the new covenant.

James

James 2:14-26, Faith and Deeds
It's one thing to say we have faith. It's quite another to live it. James reminds us that actions speak louder than words. If we have a real faith, we will put that faith into action.

JESUS IS COMING AGAIN

The Bible ends with a vision of the end times and eternity, as well as final encouragement from some of Jesus' closest friends to serve God and love others.

God promises that one day, He will make a new home for all those who believe in Him. As hard as life can be, we can live with joy knowing that our future is secure. We will spend eternity with Jesus!
