

No other words to describe Gerri other than knowledgeable, responsive, incredibly helpful, and just overall fantastic! Home buying/selling is such a stress-filled time, and the process was practically seamless. Gerri really cares and has the best interest of her clients at heart. There is no comparison between her and who we've worked with in the past. I can't imagine having gone through this entire process with anyone else! Thank you SO much, Gerri! The Smiths

We purchased our home in September of 2014 with Gerri's assistance. She was wonderful. I would recommend her to any family or person searching for a home. Her response time was excellent and her availability to show on short notice was awesome. She not only cares about selling a home and the process that encompasses, but she cares about putting her client in the RIGHT home. The Paytons

Gerri was awesome at helping us find and purchase our first home. She is an ideal agent for first home buyers as she not only helps find the perfect home for your family, she gives you some great advice and never hesitates to answer the millions of questions first timers have. She is very patient, kind and great with kids too. Our two kiddos under 6 years of age loved Gerri too!!! We definitely recommend her for anyone looking to buy a home, especially first time home buyers. Thanks Gerri!! Heather L.

Gerri was very patient with us when we were were looking for a home in Indianapolis. We must have look at over 40-50 homes and she did not once get frustrated with us or give up on us. We finally found one and were happy with the whole process. Mike and Jeannie

This is was our third time moving and anyone buying or selling a home knows what a pain it is. We have never had a realtor that lived up to our expectations until now. Gerri blew them all out of the water. We went through 5 different realtors trying to sell our house over the past 4 years and wasn't happy with any of them. Gerri is hands down the best! She made the process of buying a home as painless as possible. She was in constant contact with us, checking in every couple of days even if there was nothing new to report. She usually returned our calls or texts within 30 minutes, even on weekends and after hours. If she didn't know the answer to any of our questions she would find out and do the searching for us. Copied us on every form and email. We can't say enough good things about her. A true professional. If ever we need a realtor again, she will be the 1st person we call. Thank you! Laura and Dan
