

Newsletter 2

EMOTIONAL FINANCE

THE TOOLKIT IS READY!

Since the start of the "Emotional Finance" project in March, partners from Italy, the Netherlands and Malta have been working hard on a toolkit for financial education and awareness for teachers and youth counselors. The toolkit contains guidelines, good practices and 7 modules with different themes related to money management.

READ MORE

MODULES, GUIDELINES,
GOOD PRACTICES, & OTHER RESOURCES.

12 TRAINING PILLS ARE SOON
TO BE PUBLISHED ON OUR SOCIAL MEDIA.
STAY TUNED!

ANTS

FOR TEACHERS, TRAINERS, CONSULTANTS & YOUNGSTERS

The toolkit contains 7 Training Modules:

- 1. Emotional Intelligence in Financial Education
- 2. Euro Engagement & Young People
- 3. Navigate Social Media for Financial Education
- 4. Sustainable Money Management
- 5. Budget Management
- 6. Planning for the (un)expected
- 7. Smart Savings and Investments

The toolkit also contains Guidelines and a selection of Good Practices. It can be used in a group setting, bilaterally and also for self-study. In addition to the toolkit, there are 12 "training pills" that will soon be made available on our Social Media channels. Each of these explains the themes in bite-sized chunks.

Curious? Check it out!

If this is of interest to you, read more about the project at www.emotionalfinance.org and follow our social media channels.

If you would like to get involved in piloting our innovative emotional finance curriculum, please email us at ghita@uifoundation.eu.

We would be happy to discuss further how we can work together.