The Holy Spirit made his spouse beautiful

Mary is called the spouse of the Holy Spirit. If an artist could make his bride look the way he could paint her, he would render her as beautiful as possible. So, then, St. Alphonsus reasons, the Spirit made Mary's character exquisitely beautiful.

Since it was fitting that the Father should preserve Mary from sin as his daughter, and the Son as his mother, it was also fitting that the Holy Spirit should preserve her as his spouse. St. Augustine says: "Mary was the only one who merited to be called the mother and the spouse of God." For St. Anselm asserts that "the divine Spirit, the love itself of the Father and the Son, came bodily into Mary. Enriching her with graces above all other creatures, he reposed in her and made her his spouse, the queen of heaven and earth."

When he says that the Holy Spirit came into her bodily, he means with regard to the effect of his coming: for he came to form from her immaculate body the immaculate body of Jesus Christ, as the archangel had already promised her: "The Holy Spirit will come upon you" (Lk 1:35). For this reason, says St. Thomas, "Mary is called the temple of the Lord, and the sacred resting place of the Holy Spirit. For by the operation of the Holy Spirit, she became the mother of the incarnate Word."

Consider this: If an excellent artist had the power to make his bride look the way he could paint her, what pains would he take to render her as beautiful as possible! Who, then, would dare to say that the Holy Spirit did any less with Mary? He was able indeed to make the one who was to be his spouse as beautifully fit for him as possible. So he acted as it was fitting for him to act.

St. Alphonsus Liguori, The Glories of Mary

IN GOD'S PRESENCE, CONSIDER...

Anyone who has ever been smitten by the beauty of a loved one – especially a beauty of character – knows the power of that beauty to transform the beholder. In what ways has Mary's beauty of character attracted and transformed me?

CLOSING PRAYER

Spouse of the Holy Spirit, "behold, you are beautiful, my love; behold, you are beautiful!" (Sg 1:15).

2025 Jubilee Year of Hope Pilgrimage Sites

A Catholic pilgrimage is a sacred journey to a holy place, undertaken with the purpose of encountering God in a personal and transformative way. It does not have to be thousands of miles away. It can be as simple as visiting a nearby shrine or a historic church. What matters is the disposition of the heart—a willingness to seek God and allow Him to transform the journey.

As part of the 2025 Jubilee Year of Hope, Bishop Powers has designated two parishes as pilgrimage sites in the Diocese of Superior: Cathedral of Christ the King in Superior, and St. Joseph Catholic Church in La Pointe.

St. Joseph Catholic Church will be open starting from Saturday, May 24th through Labor Day Weekend :

Fridays for Eucharistic Adoration at 3:00 pm

Saturdays for Eucharistic celebration at 6:15 pm (Church opens at 4:00pm)

Sundays for a time of personal prayer at 9:00 am

Fr. Rajesh will be visiting his home in India from May 19 – June 18. While he's gone a visiting priest will preside over our regular weekend Mass schedule.

St. Louis Church will offer Communion Services on Friday mornings at 9 am, but there will be no weekday Masses at St. Francis or Holy Family, and no Friday Eucharistic Adoration in the cluster.

We wish Fr. Rajesh safe travels and a wonderful visit with his family.

Condolences

The members of St. Louis Parish offer their condolences to the family and loved ones of Lee Rickman, who was laid to rest in the Calvary Cemetery on May 24. May they feel God's comforting presence during this time of sorrow.

ASCENSION OF THE LORD

The Feast of the Ascension was celebrated annually from as early as apostolic times. Saint John Chrysostom, Saint Gregory of Nyssa, and Saint Augustine all attest to this fact. When the Council of Nicaea set the date for the celebration of the Resurrection in 325, it chose to keep Easter on the first Sunday after the first full moon occurring on or after the vernal equinox in spring. This decision also set the day for the Ascension being forty days after Easter, on a Thursday. Today, many ecclesiastical provinces transfer the Thursday celebration to the following Sunday to provide for a wider celebration.

Though every aspect of Christ's life is shrouded in mysteries which will only be fully understood by the faithful when they stand before Him and behold the Beatific Vision, today we especially ponder this beautiful and profound mystery of our faith. As we celebrate the Ascension, try to prayerfully meditate upon the perfect unity of Jesus' human and divine natures. Ponder further the truth that because the Son of God is both God and man, and He beholds His Father and the Holy Spirit as both God and man, He invites each of us to begin to share in that glorious vision. Only after we fully die in and with Him and rise to new life in and with Him will we be able to know Him clearly and share in His glorious resurrected and ascended life. Until that moment comes, it's important to ponder that which is incomprehensible. We must know that we do not know, believe what is beyond belief, hope in that which is more than we can understand. God is a mystery; the Ascension is a mystery—but they are mysteries that must be penetrated by prayer. Do so today as we commemorate this holy culmination of the earthly life and mission of Christ.

Prayer: My Ascended Lord, forty days after You rose from the dead You ascended to the right hand of the Father in Heaven, taking up Your throne from which You pour forth both judgment and mercy. As we honor this great mystery of Your divine and human life, I beg for mercy upon me and upon the whole world. Free us from all sin, and open the floodgates of Your mercy so that all people will share one day, body and soul, in the glory of Your Beatific Vision. Jesus, I trust in You.
