WELCOME TO THE MINORITY BUSINESS DIRECTORY

Cleveland C. Washington, Jr.

Founder and Publisher

Thank you for joining us for the 46th Annual Maryland Minority Business Directory. Each edition captures a moment in Maryland's business landscape, and this one reflects both growth and continuity. You'll meet entrepreneurs appearing here for the first time, and you'll reconnect with long-established leaders, who continue to shape and strengthen our community. Together, they highlight the momentum and talent that define this directory.

Inside these pages, you will find businesses and organizations that are innovating, problem-solving, and expanding their impact. The Directory is a powerful resource when searching for goods, services, experts, or non-profits across Maryland.

As you explore the listings, consider taking a deliberate step to meet someone new. A single virtual meeting, call, coffee, or lunch can lead to fresh ideas, unexpected partnerships, or opportunities.

And, as always, this directory comes to life because of my hard-working and talented staff. I salute each of you.

Cleveland Washington - Publisher

In Loving Memory, Jacquelyn L. Washington

The Minority Business Directory is forever dedicated to my daughter, Jacquelyn L. Washington, known as "Little Jackie." I continue to feel inspired by how she lived her life. She lived each day to the fullest. Her life was violently cut short on May 18, 1998. During her short life, Little Jackie touched so many. All those who knew and loved her miss her deeply.

November 1, 2025

On behalf of the people of Baltimore, congratulations on the publication of the 2026 Maryland Minority Business Directory, the 46th edition. The Minority Business Directory is Maryland's oldest business and professional directory featuring minority owned and managed businesses.

For decades, this directory has been an invaluable resource that promotes collaboration between local businesses, diversity and equal opportunity in the state of Maryland. Minority and women-owned businesses are major contributors to our national, state, and local economies. Successful entrepreneurial undertakings like these provide jobs, promote economic growth, diversify our economy, attract new residents, and improve the quality of life in our communities.

To all who have contributed to this year's Minority Business Directory, I wish you success as you continue to demonstrate your commitment to diversity and inclusion. On behalf of the people of Baltimore, thank you for your leadership in raising the profile of the businesses and organizations in this directory and for helping to drive entrepreneurial advancement for minorities throughout the region.

Sincerely,

Erica P. Clifton

President and CEO, Chesapeake Home Health Care, Inc.

Erica P. Clifton, CEO and President of Chesapeake Home Health Care (CHHC), is deeply committed to supporting and caring for others. Her journey in the home healthcare industry began after earning her accounting degree from Oral Roberts University, assisting her future mother-in-law with financial management for her home healthcare business. Nearly three decades later, she continues to find fulfillment in caring for sick and medically fragile children. Ms. Clifton has extensive expertise in finance, accounting, auditing, tax, and business management, developed through high-level roles within the federal government, CPA firms, and various small businesses. She emphasizes the importance of providing meaningful support to families with medically fragile children. "We're not just sending warm bodies, we're sending assistance and care to help guardians and parents bear the burden of a sick or medically fragile child. Those families need to know they are not alone." In 2021, CHHC expanded to include Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA) and Care Companion services for both seniors and children. With over 30 years of experience, Ms. Clifton is driven by the community impact her company makes and plans to establish an adult medical daycare and a certified nurse training program.

Jacqueline Hodges

Owner, Hodges Window Distribution

A window into Hodges Window Distribution reveals a far different view than what you may expect to see at a window company. You will not find a sales team. Instead, owner Jacqueline Hodges talks with clients personally and serves as a middle person between the manufacturers and contractors. Ms. Hodges is proud to provide historic windows for a number of Baltimore City clients. Hodges Window Distribution is a sister company to Hodges Window and Glass, a window repair and shower installation company that Ms. Hodges' husband ran before she took over the reins. Ms. Hodges' professional background includes more than two decades as a shock trauma nurse. She gives back to the community by visiting the elderly at nursing homes and supporting the Alopecia Fund for children.

Pamela McMichael, RN-BSN

President and Founder, Trustworthy Staffing Solutions

Pamela McMichael, RN-BSN, is the president and founder of Trustworthy Staffing Solutions, a Maryland licensed health care staffing agency that began operating in 2005 with a primary goal to provide compassionate, competent and professional service. In 2007, Ms. McMichael expanded to form a residential services agency that provides quality in-home nursing and personal care for elderly and medically impaired clients. She is an active member of Maryland National Capital Homecare Association. In January 2016, Ms. McMichael, along with her husband Calvin, opened the H.O.P.E. Training Center. The center is dedicated to her deceased parents, Harvey and Harriet Brown, both entrepreneurs and owners of HB Tours and Travel, Inc. H.O.P.E stands for Helping Other People Excel, which expounds Ms. McMichael's pursuit to be a benefit to others. She and her husband are also certified CPR/First Aid instructors for the American Red Cross. She utilizes the center to train and help develop healthcare skills in others. Ms. McMichael is most fulfilled when helping people grow professionally. Using her vision and ability to nurture others has led to long-term solutions and success.

Ashley Rock Wylie, RN, MS, MBA

Co-Owner and Program Director, Above it All

Co-Owner and COO, Fleurs d'Ave Floral Boutique

Ashley Rock Wylie's entrepreneurial path revolves around growth, new blooms and planting seeds for the future. This registered nurse divides her time between her Above it All Mental Health program and Fleurs d'Ave Floral Boutique. Above it All (AIA) provides Therapy, Therapeutic Mentoring (PRP) and Substance Use Disorder treatment to youth and adults. AIA's mission is to equip families with the knowledge, skills and resources they need to become productive members of society. In 2018, she and her husband, Brandon, launched their West Baltimore floral boutique after acquiring a florist business that had served the community for over 50 years. Along with offering unique floral creations, she sees the boutique as a catalyst for continued economic growth along the North Avenue corridor. She received her

MBA from University of Baltimore and her master's degree in Health Leadership and Management from University of Maryland School of Nursing.

Shelia Russell Williams

Realtor and Owner, Faith Realty, LLC

"I always say, if we know better, we'll do better," shares Shelia Russell Williams. "I love to get the word out and help people see how they can better their lives and become a homeowner, paying their own mortgage instead of paying someone else's mortgage." Ms. Williams has a team of five realtors working with her at her faith based real estate firm. She and her colleagues at Faith Realty pray over every contract. The team educates their clients on how to become credit ready through their 1st Time Home Buyer Seminars. Ms. Williams serves as a Board of Directors member and Vice President of Real Estate Brokers of Baltimore, was recognized by the National Women's Council in 2022 as a Mover and Shaker, was named the Greater Baltimore Board of Realtors Realtor of the year in 2022 and Distinguished Sales Associate of the Year Award 2020/2021, and designated as an "Agent of Change" in 2021 by the Baltimore Business Journal, among other accolades and accomplishments. She volunteers with Project Place to find housing for homeless veterans in Baltimore, is a volunteer with Belair Edison and a supporter for the National Alliance to End Homelessness.

Richard Green, Jr.

Owner, Maryland Janitorial Services

While some companies set out to offer the lowest price, Richard Green's philosophy centers around giving his clients the best service for a great price. That has meant pivoting during the Covid-19 Pandemic to add on disinfectant fogging to all cleaning services. This BBB accredited business specializes in eco-friendly commercial cleaning jobs for small to large sized offices, multi-unit apartments, medical offices, post construction sites and warehouses. "We focus on the details so you can have a clean, orderly office every time," says owner Richard Green, who launched his company in 2014 and has more than 20 years of experience. He found his niche after researching starting a business and saw cleaning as one of the best start-up services to pursue. The company provides complimentary consultations and estimates and is Customer Service, Bloodborne Pathogen, Medical Cleaning and Bio-hazard Cleaning certified.

Marvin Blume Sr.

President, Marvin's Muffler Works

When Marvin Blume Sr. quotes his customers a price, he sticks to his word, no matter what it takes to get the job done. Just as he makes customer service a priority, he does the same when it comes to his employees. The Baltimore native opened Marvin's Muffler Works more than four decades ago and takes pride in the fact that he can count the number of employees he has had at the Brooklyn shop on two hands. The full-service shop specializes in high performance exhaust, American and foreign vehicles, trucks and motorhomes. He believes his clients should understand where their money is going and often brings them into the service area to show them what was fixed. When not at his shop, Mr. Blume enjoys racing cars and camping.

Andrea Scott

Owner, Brownstone Tax and Financial Services

Andrea Scott's career in the tax and financial industry began nearly 20 years ago when she began doing her personal taxes. She identified a need for a wraparound of services in the financial services industry. "People want to know they can trust you through their financial journey," she shares. In 2007, she graduated from the University of Baltimore with her Master's in Legal and Ethical Studies. Brownstone Tax and Financial Services is the umbrella of other financial services companies, The Brownstone Insurance Agency (life auto, home, business insurance), and The Brownstone Training Academy (Pre-licensing for Life/Health and Property and Casualty Insurance). Ms. Scott's company is MBE/WBE certified through the City of Baltimore; she is a graduate of the Goldman Sachs 10,000 Small Business Program and ICCC (Inner City Capital Connections, Business Program). "Let us help you through your financial journey from where you are at to where you want to be," says Ms. Scott.

Tamala Price

Owner, Carey Hardware

When you turn to Carey Hardware for your building and repair needs, you're not only leaving with improvement products. You are putting money back into the Northwest Baltimore Community. In 2017, Tamala Price took over the hardware store that her father started back in 1986. She has always worked in the store and dreams of one day passing it to her children and grandchildren. She takes pride in providing the kind of customer service rarely found in big-box stores. Along with goods, Carey's Hardware also offers repair services. The most popular three reasons customers come to the Better Business Bureau accredited store include window and screen repair needs, key duplication and for old plumbing supplies. Ms. Price volunteers in numerous organizations including for the Matthew Henson Community Development Corporation and the Robert W Coleman Community Association.

Wendy Williams

Owner and Director, Bright Stars Learning Center

Wendy Williams leads Bright Stars Learning Center with a simple yet powerful philosophy – every child should feel the same love, safety, and warmth they experience at home. The family-run center, which has served the community for more than 40 years, offers daycare and after-school programs for children ages 2 to 12 and is expanding to include infant care. When Ms. Williams' mother passed away in 1998, her stepmother carried on the legacy until she officially took the reins in 2020. She finds joy in seeing former students return and proudly say, "I used to go to this center." Ms. Williams earned her AA degree from CCBC and continues to further her education. She gives back to the community by adopting families during the holidays to ensure children have gifts to open and by volunteering with a nonprofit that helps fathers gain custody of their children. Her long-term goal is to keep Bright Stars Learning Center thriving within her family, inspiring her daughter or niece to one day carry the torch.

Clifton Cornish Owner, CBY Enterprises Inc.

Clifton Cornish is driven to get the job done, no matter what it takes. His drive puts him in the lane for success at his licensed and bonding trucking company, CBY Enterprises, Inc. After growing up in the 1960s, saying that he one day wanted to drive a dump truck, like his dad, he brought that vision to life in 1985. The family business has a fleet of 15 dump trucks and works with clients in the Maryland, Virginia, Pennsylvania, and Delaware areas. The company offers such services as hauling and snow removal. You won't find Mr. Cornish cooped up in an office. He takes pride in going out in the field, to make sure every job is running smoothly. He treats every job, big or small, with equal importance. Mr. Cornish recently launched a new business venture in Anne Arundel County called 9 Five Kitchen and Bar, which features a restaurant with American Cuisine, a bar and event space for up to 300 people. Mr. Cornish is active in his church, Empowered Church Ministries.

Yves Joseph Jr., PT, CMTPT, PES, FMS-c, CSCS Founder & Owner, Y-Motion Physical Therapy

Serving as a healer – That's what drew Yves Joseph to become a physical therapist. When he ran track back in high school and later in college, he remembers that there were not many physical therapists to nurture athletes to get back on track. Mr. Joseph is a dedicated physical therapist with nearly two decades of experience specializing in sports injuries, recovery and prevention, post-operative care as well as balance and fall prevention, particularly for seniors. He has worked in various settings, including hospitals, military bases, and private practice. Committed to serving the community, Mr. Joseph opened his own physical therapy clinic in Baltimore City to provide personalized care for patients. He is passionate about helping individuals achieve their health and wellness goals, both through his clinical practice and community outreach efforts. Mr. Joseph received his B.S. at Towson University and his doctorate at SUNY Downstate Medical Center. He volunteers with Doctors Without Borders OCHO and has visited Honduras and Nicaragua to provide care for those who wouldn't otherwise have access to physical therapy. He also supports athletes at Baltimore Polytechnic Institute.

Crystal and Eric Maroya Co-Owners, King Mechanical Company

King Mechanical Company is a family-owned and operated HVAC business based in Baltimore, built on a foundation of experience, integrity, and customer care. With more than 20 years of hands-on expertise in heating, ventilation, and air conditioning, Eric Maroya leads the technical side of the company, specializing in system installation, repair, and energy-efficient solutions. His wife and partner, Crystal Maroya, oversees operations, drawing on her extensive background in accounting and business management. Together, they founded King Mechanical with a shared vision – to create a local HVAC company that treats every customer like family. Their services include advanced energy-efficient technologies such as Aeroseal, a clean, modern duct-sealing solution that improves comfort, reduces energy loss, and boosts system efficiency. The couple recognized the need for a service provider that combines expert craftsmanship with honesty, clear communication, and long-term customer relationships.

Today, Yard Merch stands as a brand where creativity, culture, and quality craftsmanship meet – rooted in Mr. Moore's lifelong love for creating clothing that tells a story.

LaQuicha Brown

Owner, Berries by Quicha

Get ready to be "Berry" impressed. Barack Obama, Beyoncé, Michael Bloomberg and Sinbad are among the client list, who have enjoyed Berries by Quicha's gourmet chocolate covered strawberry creations. LaQuicha Brown starts with high-quality sweet strawberries dipped in gourmet chocolate. From there, her creations get adorned with decorative accents, ranging from a simple band of sprinkles to even your company's logo or an edible photo design of your choice. Ms. Brown started making her confections from her home kitchen and then seized an opportunity to open her retail shop at the Best Western in Baltimore in 2013. Next came a location in Federal Hill, which she expanded in late 2021 from 1000 to 3000 square feet. "I love the creative side," shares Ms. Brown, who channeled the skills she gained from her Morgan State sociology degree and criminal justice minor (she plays detective to figure out what her clients want) into making a name for herself in the DMV. Ms. Brown is a mom of three, ages 19, 22 and 24.

Mr. Standfield grew up attending Baltimore City Public schools and took additional coursework through The Police Academy.

Larry Moore

Owner, Home Base Remodeling

Futures are not always the ones that seem to be written on the wall – or painted, in Larry Moore's case. The path that led him to launch Home Base Remodeling was not one he expected. Years ago, while working as a manager at Burger King, Mr. Moore ran into one of his employees and her mother at Home Depot in the paint section. Next thing Mr. Moore knew, his employee's mom asked him if he painted and if he would do her living and dining room. That led to referral after referral. Mr. Moore, a Baltimore native, kept up the side work while putting himself through school to earn his computer science degree at Coppin State University followed by advanced certifications. He went on to work at Procter & Gamble for 15 years and a 2012 lay off turned out to be a blessing in disguise. It inspired Mr. Moore to turn his part-time contracting business into his full-time passion. He says no job is too small. Flooring is his favorite. He does everything except for heat and air conditioning.

Fueled with creativity and by a mission to close the racial wealth divide, create opportunities for education and entrepreneurship, Ronald S. Hazell, Jr. launched The Kreative Print Shop (TKPS). TKPS makes it possible for businesses, organizations and individuals to bring their messages to life with custom apparel, promotional products and signage. This Baltimore native grew his business from a small basement operation to a dynamic enterprise, known for its craftsmanship, innovation, and community-driven approach. Beyond being a print shop, TKPS is "a platform for empowerment." Along with creating partnerships with corporations, nonprofits, and schools, TKPS helps clients express their creativity and make an economic impact. Mr. Hazell received his Business Management B.S. and a certificate in Entrepreneurship from North Carolina A&T State University, received his MBA in Entrepreneurship from Morgan State University's Graves School of Business, and graduated from the Goldman Sachs 10,000 Small Businesses Program. Known for blending business acumen with heart, this husband and father also invests his time in teaching, mentoring and serving the community.

Michael Washington

Founder and President, The Washington Building Group (WBG Construction, LLC)

Piano keys and power tools both play a role in Michael Washington's backstory. As a teen, he was already a budding musician, playing piano at church. After his dad told him, "You can't make a business out of that," a fellow church member offered him a summer carpentry job. Mr. Washington has never looked back. He earned his BS in Construction Management from Bradley University and a Master's in Construction Project Management from Northwestern University in Chicago, then moved to the East Coast for "love and money," as his wife was pursuing her doctorate at the University of Maryland. Mr. Washington founded The Washington Building Group (WBG Construction, LLC) after working for Turner Construction. His company is a full-service general contractor, specializing in renovations and build-outs for universities, office spaces, retail locations, and hospital labs. Along with being OSHA 30 trained, Mr. Washington is a LEED AP and has completed multiple LEED projects. This father of four enjoys playing music, hiking, and fishing.

Vonnette Harris

Founder and President, Kairos Development, LLC

Vonnette Harris has a long-standing commitment to providing sustainable, high-quality housing solutions for low to moderate-income families. Kairos Development, LLC, a certified 100% minority owned Maryland based real estate development and consulting firm, focuses on expanding opportunities of community economic development and investment in underserved neighborhoods in the Baltimore-Washington region. Ms. Harris is a credentialed real estate professional with over 20 years experience in the construction, development, and finance of multi-family, mixed-income housing. She is well versed in the development process including site selection and acquisition, project feasibility and market demand, community engagement and entitlements, project financing and management, construction management, lease up, continued occupancy and compliance. Ms. Harris has completed over $230 million dollars of mixed-financed transactions, including the substantial renovation and new construction of a large scattered site development, multiple mid-rise developments for seniors and families, and the adaptive reuse of several historic structures into multifamily housing. Ms. Harris has the combination of passion, experience, drive, vision, and integrity to ensure her initiatives succeed. Kairos Development grew from her desire to assist historically disadvantaged and underinvested communities of color, recognizing quality housing should be a fundamental right, not a privilege.

There Goes My Hero

Every three minutes, someone is diagnosed with blood cancer. There Goes My Hero's mission is to save lives, provide hope and support those impacted by blood cancer. A swab of the cheek can save a life. Nationally, people of color are underrepresented on the bone marrow donor registry, which means they have a harder time finding a donor – only 23% of African American blood cancer patients find a donor. Through Color the Registry, TGMH seeks to diversify the bone marrow donor registry offering hope to all patients in need of a bone marrow transplant, no matter their ethnic or racial background. You can support their mission by hosting a bone marrow registry drive at your workplace, place of worship, neighborhood organization, or community event. By simply swabbing your cheek, you could be identified as a life-saving match for someone in need.

Eric Brockman

Founder, Chairman & CEO, Focus on Communities United for Success (FOCUS)

Eric Brockman is living proof of the power in giving people a chance. He graduated with a 1.6 GPA from high school and Elizabeth City State University (ECSU), an HBCU in North Carolina, gave him a semester to prove himself. He went beyond that and is now paying it forward. With more than 40 years in the IT field behind him, this tech industry executive and cyber risk advisor launched Focus on Communities United for Success (FOCUS), a Baltimore-based non-profit that provides IT job training opportunities to disadvantaged and underprivileged 18 to 45-year-olds, interested in earning CompTIA and AWS certifications to work in A+ network plus, security plus and Amazon web services roles. Participation in his competitive program is based on an in-depth selection process. Since 2018, there has been a 100-percent placement rate. Mr. Brockman received his BS in math and computer science from ECSU and his BA in biblical studies from the Triangle Bible Institute. Mr. Brockman serves as a volunteer in the prison ministry and is an avid bowler. Mr. Brockman is proud that his personal story of how an HBCU saved his life is part of the nation's historical record in the Library of Congress.

Tonia Cain

Owner and Founder, Ruby Rock Inc.

Tonia Cain's commercial cleaning company is named after her late mother, Ruby, who was Tonia's "rock" in life and whose memory continues to serve that role. Ruby spent more than three decades cleaning offices on Capitol Hill. It wasn't until Ms. Cain grew up when she realized the impact her mom made on her and of the amazing experience she gained from the days she spent accompanying her mom to work. Ms. Cain started Ruby Rock, Inc. in 2018, to keep her mom's legacy alive. Ruby Rock Inc. provides cleaning and mold remediation services as well as construction clean-up throughout the DMV area. Ms. Cain gives back to the community by mentoring other women on how to get certified as small business owners.

Samantha Sullivan

Owner, ACS Property Services

Three driving forces propelled Samantha Sullivan into the construction industry. Growing up without a father figure in her life, Ms. Sullivan taught herself as a child by trial and error how to fix things. After gaining experience at a large company, she realized that she didn't want to be a number. When she went out on her own, she felt driven to change the story of single and elderly women getting taken advantage of and being charged more for repairs that they didn't understand. ACS Property Services, a general contracting firm, does commercial and residential projects, including painting, demolition and concrete work. Ms. Sullivan credits her husband, who works in the concrete industry, for being her biggest supporter.

WHAT IS THE MINORITY BUSINESS DIRECTORY?

The Minority Business Directory is a privately-owned business entity, not supported by any government grants or assistance.

The Directory is a controlled circulation of classified listings and advertisements of community owned businesses and professionals, offering a wide range of goods and services. The Directory also includes a number of advertisements from local majority businesses and government agencies. Extensive public service listings provide social, civic, educational and medical information. The combined result is a valuable consumer shopping guide, distributed free to the community. Free distribution of the Directory is made possible by the sale of advertising space within the Directory.

HOW TO ACQUIRE AND USE THE MINORITY BUSINESS DIRECTORY

To acquire the MINORITY BUSINESS DIRECTORY, refer to the list of distribution points in the back of the Directory. Stop by the most convenient location and request a copy of the MBD. Copies of the Directory are also available within the businesses on this list. For further information on how to receive the Directory, please call the Minority Business Directory, Inc. at (443) 224-2343.

COMMUNITY BUSINESS CONSUMERS - When seeking goods and services, community consumers are urged to look first within the Directory. If the goods and services are not offered by participating MBD businesses, then pursue other conventional means of locating the business you seek.

Remember, when you patronize community-based businesses, you are contributing to the economic foundation of the community which benefits all members in the community. Community consumers are also urged to patronize the majority corporations advertising in the MBD. These corporations are concerned for and committed to improving the minority community.

COMMUNITY BUSINESS OWNERS - The major corporations and government agency advertisers in MBD have expressed their desire to do business with community vendors and suppliers. Community business owners should contact these advertisers to make them aware of your firm's capabilities for supplying goods and services.

MBD received requests on a regular basis for the names of community vendors and suppliers for various goods and services. Community business owners whose businesses are not listed in the Directory should write to the MBD office to make us aware of your existence and expertise so that we can refer your business to those purchasers seeking your goods and services.

CORPORATE AND GOVERNMENT PURCHASERS -
Purchasing officers are urged to utilize MBD to locate businesses for supplying their firm's needs. MBD has approximately 500 community based businesses on file, all of which are not listed in this edition. In addition, MBD is continually informed of new and existing businesses in the area. For additional information on community based businesses, please call the Directory at (443) 224-2343.

STUDENTS AND JOB SEEKERS - Many advertisers in MBD request job applicants with specific skills and educational training. Students and job seekers are encouraged to review the Career Opportunities Section of the Directory when planning for careers and employment changes.

ALL USERS - MBD is your resource to locate competent, professional, dedicated and hardworking members of the Baltimore community. They will be pleased to serve you. Keep your Directory accessible and call on the merchants advertised herein; and when you do, tell them you found them in the Directory. They will appreciate it, and we will all benefit from it. It's Good Business to Do Business with Minorities.

KAIROS DEVELOPMENT

410-262-0408

vharris@kairosdevelopmentllc.com

www.kairosdevelopmentllc.com

Kairos Development produces quality housing and provides exceptional technical support to community-based and faith-based nonprofits striving to improve their communities. Led by an unwavering belief that quality housing is a fundamental right and not a privilege for some, Kairos Development seeks to address the socio-economic disparities in communities of color that are historically disinvested throughout the Baltimore-Washington Metro area.

THE VOICE OF THE COMMUNITY

Morgan State University

Our mission is to empower, engage and educate our diverse audience with news and music programming.

WEAA was founded in 1977 on the campus of Morgan State University. Whether it's Jazz, R&B, News/Talk our music is from around the globe, WEAA has the community covered.

WEAA has been known to reach 200,000 listeners a week. As the voice of the community, WEAA helps countless businesses, large and small, accomplish one main goal - reaching out to new potential customers. Desmond heads the team that can help you with that task.

Let's discuss about how WEAA can market your business or product!
