Please share any information or feedback you would like with the instructor...

Your way of presenting the information and the manner you treat everyone around you is very pleasant and it's been a pleasure to spend this time with you. Also, your passion for the topic is truly inspiring for your students. If I'm allowed, I would recommend the training to be done separately for the students in the class and the students on the zoom. It would certainly help everyone involved to fully benefit from your great experience and engaging way of presenting. It might not be possible, in which case I completely understand.
