Series Comments, Papers
The Lancet Online First " Re-invigorating Japan's commitment to global health: challenges and opportunities"

"In 2011, Japan celebrates 50 years of kaihoken: health insurance for all...What produced Japan's impressive performance over the past half century?...buried in the successes of the past 50 years are the roots of Japan's health-care challenges today."

Tokyo Bay Hospital ER

Recently in Japan, Patient Rejection by Hospitals became big problem. They started new ER system like North America which they accept almost all emergency patients in the area.
