

Ululation

2018, 12.10 minutes

SYNOPSIS

A filmmaker from Scotland tries to understand what it means to be between two cultures by spending time with the women in her Algerian family.

CONVERSATION QUESTIONS

1. Reflect on the role of language in supporting communication across generations.
2. In your opinion, how can cultural differences enrich family ties?
3. 'Don't let this make you forget, that as a woman you must live your life.' How do the film's different voices construct particular forms of female agency?
4. What is your favourite scene and why?
