

Comprehensive Investor Readiness and Investment Services

At Veritas Arbor we provide end-to-end services to make your company ready for investment and ensure a smooth process from investor outreach to closing the deal. Whether you're seeking to attract investors, verify their credibility, or finalize agreements, we handle every step with precision and professionalism.

Our Services:

1. Investor Outreach and Research

We identify and connect you with the right investors for your business, ensuring they align with your industry and growth stage.

What We Do:

- Investor Identification: We target the most suitable investors based on your business size, industry, and funding needs.
- Research & Networking: Utilize our extensive network and research tools to create a list of credible investors who have a track record in your market.
- Tailored Investor Pitch: We craft personalized pitches for each investor, highlighting how your company aligns with their portfolio.

Why It Matters: Connecting with the right investors is crucial for securing capital and long-term growth. We ensure your pitch reaches the investors most likely to invest in your business.

2. Investor-Specific Legal Verification

Once an investor shows interest, it's essential to verify their background and ensure their investment terms align with your company's long-term goals.

What We Do:

- Background Checks: We conduct thorough legal and financial background checks to ensure your investors are credible and meet regulatory standards.
- Term Sheet Review: Our legal experts review all investment terms to ensure fair and favorable agreements.
- Investor Rights Review: We assess and negotiate investor rights, ensuring a balance between investor involvement and your operational control.

Why It Matters: Proper due diligence protects your company from future legal or financial complications and ensures you are partnering with credible investors who support your growth.

3. Final Legal Agreement and Closing

We handle all the legal documentation and final steps necessary to close the deal with your investors, ensuring everything is compliant and secure.

What We Do:

- Drafting the Investment Agreement: We prepare all legal agreements, including shareholder agreements, term sheets, and any required amendments.
- Regulatory Filings: We ensure that all necessary regulatory filings are completed, ensuring compliance with local and international laws.
- Closing the Deal: Our team manages the entire closing process, from signing the agreement to the transfer of funds and finalizing investor onboarding.

Why It Matters: A solid legal agreement is essential for long-term partnerships. We ensure a seamless and legally sound closing process, protecting both your company and your investors.

4. In-Depth Financial Modeling

A strong financial model is critical in proving your company's future profitability to investors. We create detailed financial models that forecast growth and profitability, providing a clear view of your financial future.

What We Do:

- Historical Data Analysis: We analyze your past financials to build a reliable foundation for future projections.
- Revenue and Cost Projections: We forecast your revenue growth and operating expenses based on market research and historical trends.
- Scenario and Sensitivity Analysis: We test different scenarios to give investors a clear understanding of potential risks and outcomes.

Why It Matters: A comprehensive financial model is often the deciding factor for investors. We ensure your financials are accurate, reliable, and demonstrate your company's growth potential.
