MENTAL WELLNESS SUPPORT GRANT APPLICATION

GRANT OVERVIEW

The Mental Wellness Support Grant provides financial assistance to individuals pursuing education and certification in fields related to mental health, trauma-informed care, and community well-being. This grant aims to support those who are dedicated to making a positive impact on mental wellness in their local communities.

NUMBER OF AWARDS

The number of awards granted will be determined by available funds. Priority will be given to individuals with demonstrated financial need and those who show a commitment to applying their education to support mental wellness efforts in themselves and communities.

AMOUNT OF AWARDS

The grant will cover program costs up to $1,500 per recipient, depending on the nature of the certification or educational program.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

To be eligible for this grant, applicants must meet the following criteria:

- Be accepted or enrolled in an accredited mental wellness or education program.
- Submit a statement outlining how their education will contribute to mental wellness in their community. This statement should reflect the applicant's passion, goals, and specific plans for utilizing the skills learned.
