HT stand for Hidden Treasure – check it out!
O & OO stands, of course, for oversize – see black side files – worth their weight in gold and yes, heavy.

The bold O signifies that the file on the author is SO LARGE that it has been removed from the archive boxes and hung in the black trays in front of the Archive shelves.
O.O is for superoversize, found on the bottom and over on the shelves too

Tapes of all sorts live in the drawers under the TV cupboard in the Woolf room – this info is noted in the specific files.

There is a lovely LOCAL WRITERS BIN in the making.

Also POETRY has a separate BIN in the making.

PERFORMING ARTS (theatre, film, music, dance) has a BIN of its Own.
