HAPPY THANKSGIVING

Resident of the Month

Elmer Boie

Elmer was born on June 27th, 1929 in South Dakota. He and his siblings grew up here, before moving to Iowa in 1944. He enjoyed working on his family farm, helping with chores. He enjoyed playing softball as a young kid, but his passion for photography developed around the age of 6 years old.

After graduating High School in 1949, Elmer went on to attend Wartburg College to begin his career in teaching.

During College, he worked as a teacher while trying to finish his degree. Elmer met his future wife, Aletha when he had an opportunity to take some photos of her for a class he was taking. After getting to know each other, they married in June 1952.

Elmer enjoyed working as a teacher and being around children. He and Aletha decided to adopt their two children David and Linda.

Some of Elmer's hobbies in life were photography, turning his pictures into cards, hunting, fishing, and gunsmithing.
