

BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS
MANHASSET PARK DISTRICT
Emergency Special MEETING MARCH 16, 2020

Meeting 20-06

The Emergency meeting of the Board of Commissioners of the Manhasset Park District (MPD) convened at the Manhasset Park District Office at 62 Manhasset Avenue in Manhasset, New York at 10:30A.M. Monday, March 16, 2020. Present were Commissioners, Mark S. Sauvigne, David Paterson, and Kenneth Weigand. In addition, Amanda Niewender, Secretary to the Board of Commissioners was present.

1. State of Emergency

In response to the 2019 novel coronavirus (COVID-19), on March 7, 2020 Governor Andrew M. Cuomo issued Executive Order 202 declaring a state of emergency. The MPD is closely monitoring the coronavirus outbreak and is staying updated as the situation evolves. As an employer during this public health emergency, the safety and well-being of the MPD employees and the public-at-large is of the utmost importance. Therefore, effective March 16th, the MPD is declaring a State of Emergency and has directed that all employees shall only report to work for essential duties. The office will be closed to the public until further notice. Even under the current circumstances, it is necessary for essential functions of the MPD remain open and operational, Ralph and Amanda will work on a rotation schedule to ensure all the essential tasks be completed. All employees will be paid during this emergency, even if they are not able to come to work.

Having no other items on the agenda, Motion was made by Kenneth Weigand, Chair to adjourn the meeting. Motion seconded by Mark Sauvigne and all voted "aye".

Meeting ended at 11:00 A.M.
