3. Alexandra Maliagros

Ms. Maliagros came to the meeting because she received a ticket for no fee, when she had a monthly for February hung, and didn't switch it to a March monthly that she had previously purchased. She explained she is a new driver, and it was a mistake at the beginning of the month that she did not switch it. The Board discussed. The resident did have a March monthly, this was her first ticket, and the ticket was not sent into court yet. The Board agreed they will VOID the ticket.

4. Nonresident Assessment

The Board reviewed the data from this month. Wednesdays are definitely the busiest day, and the Board is considering limiting nonresidents in the coming months. The will continue to review and decide on an April extension at the next meeting.

5. FOIL update

Amanda gave the documents to be foiled to the attorneys to review before being released. She asked the resident whether they wanted the documents via email or via paper documents mailed at a fee. She is awaiting a response.

6. Suspended Permit

After the February 6 meeting, a letter was sent to a resident to suspend her permit for 30 days, due to disregard of parking regulations. She did not park within the 30 days, and the Board feels that her permit can be reinstated immediately.

Amanda updated the Board that the 2 new trucks will be delivered this month. Also, the auditors will be here this week to perform an annual audit.
