

History: Distinguished Service Award

The Graduate School of Education Alumni Association (GSEAA) awards the Distinguished Service Award (DSA) to alumni of the Rutgers Graduate School of Education (GSE) for outstanding achievements in education.

The DSA is presented by the GSEAA to alumni who have rendered outstanding service to the field of education and/or to the Rutgers GSE-- which is defined as unusual service in the form of faithful and continued effort in bringing about the goals and ideals of education and upholding the values within. The recipients are being recognized for their outstanding work and contributions to the field and/or to the school.

This award is conferred bi-annually. This year, 2019-2020, marks the 60th anniversary of the Distinguished Service Award. Over these years, 148 alumni have been recognized and honored!

Guidelines: Distinguished Service Award

1. The Nominee must have completed a graduate degree, master or doctoral level, from the Graduate School of Education, or its predecessor, the School of Education.
2. The Nominee must have made significant contributions to the Rutgers Graduate School of Education, to the field of education, in general, and / or to the Graduate School of Education Alumni Association.
3. Upon notification of selection, the awardee must agree to attend the award ceremony. Otherwise, the award will be given to the next highest candidate who agrees to attend. Exceptions will be made for extenuating circumstances.
4. Board members of the GSEAA and its honor society Kappa Delta Pi are not eligible for nomination.
5. Full time and part time employees of the University are not eligible for nomination.
