

Graphic Designer

Dominique
Tanner

My name is Dominique Tanner,

Growing up, I was introduced to graphic design by my mother. Creativity is a trait that has been passed through my bloodline, and continues to be an primary influence in my life. I have always had a passion for the arts, and being raised by a designer my talent came very naturally. My goal is to continue to grow as an artist and successfully pursue a creative career.

Art and design have helped shape me into the person I am today. I've learned how to express my creativity and find my passion.

I'm certain it will follow me for all of my days.
