

RESOLUTION NO. 2016-4

A RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING THE MAYOR TO COOPERATE WITH THE MAYOR OF THE VILLAGE OF BETHESDA, OHIO, TO PREPARE AND SUBMIT AN APPLICATION TO PARTICIPATE IN THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT INNOVATION FUND FOR THE PURPOSE OF PURCHASING STREET EQUIPMENT IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE VILLAGE OF BETHESDA, OHIO.

WHEREAS, the Ohio Development Services Agency provides financial assistance through the Local Government Innovation Fund to political subdivisions for planning and implementing projects to create efficient and effective service delivery; for projects that promote collaborations and shared services among local governments; and for projects that facilitate improved business environments and promote community attraction.

WHEREAS, Council desires to share the use of certain street equipment in collaboration and in an agreement of partnership, with the Village of Bethesda, Ohio, as outlined in a Partnership Agreement and Memorandum of Understanding (a copy of which is attached to this resolution).

WHEREAS, this collaboration and agreement of partnership, with the Village of Bethesda, Ohio, will provide cost savings, as well as effective service delivery to the residents of the Village of Belmont, Ohio.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Council of the Village of Belmont, Belmont County, Ohio:

SECTION 1. (A) Council authorizes the Mayor to cooperate with the Mayor of the Village of Bethesda, Ohio, to apply to the Local Government Innovation Fund for a loan for a street cleaner.

(B) Council further authorizes the Mayor to enter into any agreements as may be necessary and appropriate for obtaining this financial assistance.
