

GLOBAL POLITICS
ESSAY COMPETITION

Political Education For Students (PEFS) invites students up to the age of 22 years old to the 2026 Global Politics Essay Competition, focusing on international relations, global political events and debates within global governance. Entrants can reside in any country.

Participants can enter one of two categories— “Junior” (up to 18 years old in schools, colleges or sixth forms) or “Senior” (18 up to 22 years old in universities, other education or employment) - to win cash prizes, free workshops, strategy calls and free online subscriptions. There is no minimum age for entry.

Schools, educational institutions or organisations can also enter multiple students through an invoice to their setting. The early registration discounts for those who register by Friday, 29th May 2026, with the essay submission deadline on Monday, 7 September 2026.

Entrants can find out more, view the questions and register by scanning the QR code or visiting www.pefs.co.uk/competition.

GOOD LUCK.
