

“Our Journey Towards Easter-- Tuesday” Luke 20:1-8

Jesus “turns the tables” (in another way):

On one hand: Yes, J _____ B _____ was from heaven/from God (John would be pointing to Jesus as the M _____)

On the other hand: No, John’s baptism was NOT from H _____/just something human (the masses would have risen up against those religious leaders)

What is it that makes somebody an “authority”:

- I. Their T _____ R _____
 - a. Their K _____
 - b. Their E _____
 - c. Their C _____

- II. When this is the case, we generally attach more
W _____ to what that person says

This most definitely should be the case with J _____

- III. One’s authority is also deeply connected to P _____
(seeking that person as an expert F _____)

When I take the I _____ from an authority figure and do S _____ with it, THEN I can say that that one’s authority has I _____ my life.

When our D _____ start getting more and more influenced by Jesus, we won’t just S _____ “He’s my authority”, He will actually B _____ our authority.
