

SnakeHips'n'LizardLips

SnakeHips'n'LizardLips is Ma9Na's tribute to the man and to the group of very fine musicians that were INXS, done the Ma9Na way.

Ma9Na was a musician in Australia, the INXS sound and especially their early songs were very much a part of Ma9Na's career and paths crossed often throughout the 80's, some not obvious until later in life.

Ma9Na tells a simple story that is as much about the private man that not many knew whilst acknowledging the vibe and fun that Michael Hutchence and INXS took to the world, leaving a musical footnote in history.

I'll take you,
take you,
where you wanna be Right Now!
