DVMA Breakfast & Jelly Belly Cruise

by Gail Vasgerdsian

The Diablo Valley Mustang Association turned an ordinary Saturday into a full-throttle good time with its May 2nd breakfast meet-up at Heavenly Bistro. Eighteen members rolled in—some a little earlier than planned, given that parking can be a challenge—but the food made every extra loop around the block worth it. And now that we've learned we can use the Back Forty lot as long as we're out by 11:00, future breakfasts just got a whole lot easier.

Once plates were cleared and coffee cups drained, seven Mustangs and twelve members fired up their engines for a day packed with cruising, treats, and nostalgia. The first stop: the Jelly Belly Factory for the self-guided tour. Surprisingly, most of our group had never been there before—and with the bittersweet news that Jelly Belly will soon be closing and relocating to Germany, this visit felt especially meaningful. If you haven't made the trip yet, it's absolutely a cruise worth taking.

The fun didn't stop at the tour. We hopped aboard the Jelly Belly train, which carried us to the Jelly Belly Museum where we learned the company's history, saw vintage memorabilia, and—of course—hit the discount shop. No one left empty-handed; bags of treats were tucked into every Mustang.

President's Message from Derek Schaffer

Summer is here! Let's get those ponies out and show them off. I know, I know, gas is expensive and time is hard to find sometimes. But don't wish you went on that run, at that show, or had joined the group for that impromptu get-together — take the time to make it happen. Car not running? Jump in with a fellow member. Memories with friends are priceless. We are now in full car show season. There are so many choices out there; just look at our calendar! From now until winter, every weekend offers multiple choices. Not sure which to attend? Reach out to other DVMA members and get a group together. When you do go somewhere with your prized ride, send pictures to our email address along with a write up about the event. We all love hearing about outings.

We have added a few new members— welcome! We can't wait to meet you. As a member you are entitled and encouraged to attend both board and general meetings. These meetings are kept lighthearted and we want to hear your input. At these meetings you will hear about the status of the club, upcoming events, and of course everything leading up to our car show in October. This is a great way to meet others in the club as well as members of the board. General meetings are held at Fuddruckers in Concord and board meetings are held at Round Table pizza in Walnut Creek. What's better than a burger or slice of pizza with friends? Oh yeah and a meeting. Have some car parts you no longer need and want to sell them? Send a picture or two to our email address with a description, price, and a number to get hold of you. We will get them on the website. Send them to: Diablovalleymustang@gmail.com. Your old parts might just be the missing piece for someone else.

Now on a more personal note, I am very proud of this club. Lisa and I attend quite a few shows and as DVMA President I try and make sure to approach the President or a board member of the host club while I'm there. I have to tell you, OUR CLUB ROCKS! Other clubs ask me how we are doing it. Our membership is growing. Our club is highly active. Our meetings draw good numbers and we show up in numbers for events. Other clubs are losing members, can't get members to attend or participate, and are concerned their clubs aren't going to be around much longer. I for one do not want to see this. I want all clubs to flourish. This is why I planned a get-together at JB Today Studios and Moto Visions on May 30th in San Ramon. The purpose of this event is to get clubs together. No trophies. Not strictly mustangs. Just a reason for like minded car enthusiasts to show their rides off and have a fun day. By the time you read this the event will have already happened. I'm hoping it's a big hit. Happy driving, be safe, and as always, thank you for allowing me to be your president.

- Derek

From Fairfield, the herd galloped up Highway 80 to the Nut Tree, where Fentons awaited us with one thing on everyone's mind: ICE CREAM. Bowls, cones, sundaes—whatever the form, every last lick was enjoyed. With stomachs full and spirits high, it was time to point the Mustangs toward home.

Our return route mirrored the scenic drive from February's Valentine's Run—rolling open land, quiet stretches of country road, and the peaceful charm of the Delta. We cruised through Isleton, crossed the bridge, and followed the waterline road until the Antioch Bridge came into view. Once over the bridge, the group exchanged waves, honks, and smiles before splitting off toward home. Another beautiful day on the road, another memory made.

This run had everything: great food, great company, sweet treats, scenic roads, and the unmistakable joy of getting our Mustangs out where they belong—on the open road. Another fun event in the books for the Diablo Valley Mustang Association.

Biggest Little Car Show

by Derek Schaffer

Several DVMA members attended the 41st annual Golden Hills “Biggest Little Car Show”. It was a beautiful day on the waterfront in Suisun, Ca. This is a great show and an amazing location to have a car show. Every year they have a theme and this year’s theme was Shelby. The venue has a round cement stage where they showcase cars corresponding with the theme. DVMA member JT was asked to park his car on the stage. Also in attendance were the following Diablo Valley Mustang members: Dave, JT, Bradley, Brian and myself.

This show is a participants vote show. Each registered car gets a ballot with all the categories on it. Attendees are asked to tour the show voting on their favorite car in each category. When turning in your ballot you reserve a ticket for the raffle. Music played, there was a slight breeze, and fun was had by all. Bradley and I were honored with first place in our respective categories. Bradley in the Boss Mustang class and myself in the 64½ to 70 modified mustang class, each took first place awards. If you have never attended this show, please give it a try. I think you will have a blast.

Cars, Kids, & Coffee at The Cobra

by Erik Miller

On May 17th, The Cobra Experience opened its doors (and parking lot) for another Cars, Kids, and Coffee — and this one delivered! The monthly gathering drew an impressive lineup of cars, with the extra bonus was the Fairlane Club holding their annual show there on the the same day. Several DVMA members turned up to show off their Mustangs, and Dave Edwards brought his recently acquired 1969 Fairlane convertible. The East Bay Slot Car Club stole hearts with their trailer-mounted working slot car track, giving kids (and plenty of adults) a chance to race. A great morning all around.

Cars, Kids, & Coffee takes place the third Sunday of every month. We hope you'll join us for the special Father's Day edition on June 21st!

DVMA Down on the Farm

by Gail Vasgerdsian

The Diablo Valley Mustang Association rolled into summer with its third consecutive year attending Snakes at the Farm on Saturday, May 9th—a relaxed, sun-splashed gathering hosted by The Cobra Experience at the scenic Balestrieri Family Farm in the heart of Alhambra Valley. This casual, community-focused gathering once again provided an enjoyable day for DVMA members and Mustang enthusiasts.

The day began with nine Mustangs assembling at the Domino's in the Sun Valley Mall parking lot. Engines warmed, radios crackled, and the group set off together, cruising as a colorful herd through the rolling hills and winding roads of Alhambra Valley. Two more Mustangs joined a bit later, bringing the total to eleven—perfect for the eleven spots DVMA had reserved right in front of the winery.

With help from Emily and the Cobra Experience staff, the Mustangs were lined up in a striking display: classics and modern models, hardtops and convertibles, a rainbow of colors gleaming in the morning light. Once parked, members settled into a cozy barn area that offered a refreshing breeze and a postcard-worthy view of the surrounding hills. A generous spread of snacks quickly became the social hub, paired perfectly with Balestrieri's wines available for purchase.

The farm itself added to the charm. Baby goats, cows, and even an emu wandered the grounds, while games like cornhole kept the atmosphere playful. A food truck and an ice cream truck rounded out the offerings, ensuring no one went hungry. Conversations flowed easily as members caught up with old friends and welcomed first-timers to the DVMA family.

After the event wrapped up, the group cruised back through the valley and into Pleasant Hill for dinner at Los Panchos. A long table for sixteen was assembled, and the lively conversation continued—Mustangs, life, and everything in between.

Snakes at the Farm has clearly become a beloved annual tradition for DVMA. With eleven spots filled this year, hopes are high that next year the club will fill all fifteen. A heartfelt thank you go out to Emily, Drew, Janet, and the entire Cobra Experience and Balestrieri Farm teams for hosting such a memorable day. DVMA is already looking forward to returning next year.

A Full Day of Mustang Mania, DVMA Style!

by Erik Miller

Saturday, May 30th was one for the record books! DVMA members attended no less than four events, starting in the early morning and going until well past dark. A herd of ponies met up at the Walnut Creek Bevmo to get on the road at 8:15 am, headed to the DVMA Car Meet at JB Today Studios/Motovisions in San Ramon. Once arrived, cars filled up the parking lot at the beautiful location - mostly Mustangs, but a couple of Camaros, a Cadillac, a Corvette, and even a Shelby Series 1 rounded out the group. Not only was there the informal car show in the lot, but several members got the opportunity to have their cars professionally photographed in the JB Today studio. The lighting is amazing there - it makes any car look good, and good cars look amazing.

In addition to the coffee, donuts, food shop tours, and general camaraderie, Moto Visions had their chassis dyno up and running. After testing several cars, they had another open spot, and since nobody else was up for it, I decided to put my '67 six cylinder coupe on there to see what she could do. The end result - a whopping 78 rear wheel horsepower! Not all Mustangs were muscle cars, some of them were just good looking, basic transportation.

As the afternoon rolled around, 18 members and their pretty ponies headed out to do a leisurely cruise from San Ramon to Niles for lunch at Rae Rae's at Joe's Corner.

After some time to do their own thing, 10 members met back up in Walnut Creek for the evening cruise on Main Street. The street was packed with cars, with so many people reliving their younger days of cruising on Main. DVMA members Chuck & Dottie Niethold actually first met while cruising there back in the day!

After the cruise, 16 members headed to Jack's for dinner, eating, drinking, and having fun until around 10:00 pm. For a bit of fun, they had the waitress deliver the check for the whole table to honorary member Keith Euranius. His eyes went wide and he let out a "Oh, hell no!" when he realized what he had been handed! The group tried to convince him to write it off as a business expense since most of them get their Hagerty Insurance through him.

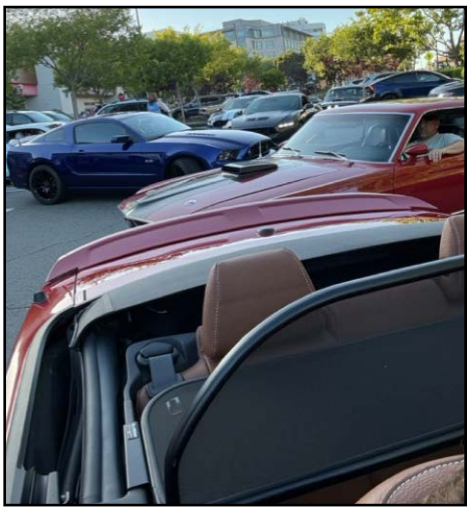
After a long, fun day of car events and finishing with a good meal, the group parted ways to go home and give their ponies some rest. If this is any indication of how this year is going, there will be no shortage of amazing events for you and your mustang to attend. In fact, check out all that's in store for June on the event calendars on pages 6 & 7.



4th of July, DVMA Style!

DVMA will be participating in both the Concord and Clayton 4th of July Parades to celebrate America's 250th birthday! This is always a fun day as we show off our Mustangs in both parades, and then meet for lunch at Kinder's, whose address is, appropriately, 1776 Arnold Industrial Way.

Keep an eye out for a signup email from DVMA and get registered to attend. Special thanks to Tony Eistetter for the heading up the Clayton event, and Karen Davis for coordinating Concord.

If that's not enough Americana for you, DVMA will have a special Mustang corral at Le Pit Club's American Car Day on Sunday, July 5th. We are hoping to put together several sets of red, white, & blue Mustangs, but all colors of ponies are welcome!
