DVMA Car Show Happens Sunday June 5

2022 DVMA All Ford Car Show
Sunday, June 5th, 9:00 am to 2:00 pm
Streets of Brentwood Shopping Center
Red Robin Parking Lot
2455 Sand Creek Rd

Online Registration is Closed - Show Up & Check-in at Show

This is it! DVMA's car show is in 4 days! We have quite a few cars preregistered. Online registration is now closed, but you can still bring your car and enter it the day of the show. Ron Freitas will be our Head Judge, but we still need help with judging, parking, and many other duties on the day of the show. If you can volunteer, please call Harry Davis at (925) 768-4903 or harrykaren@comcast.net. Let's make it a great day for Ford fans.

DVMA Polo Shirts: Take Two!

They're back - the DVMA polo shirts were such a hit, we are placing a follow-up order already. Maybe you are regretting not getting one the first time around, or you love your new shirt so much you want one in every color - either way we have you covered. Email Erik to order your shirt before the June 20 deadline. The form with links to the styles and colors available is on page 11 of this newsletter. This will be the last order for a while, since there is a minimum number that must be ordered each time. Don't miss out on this second chance...

DVMA Dispatch

President's Message from Harry Davis

Welcome to new members Tony and Debbie Eistetter. DVMA has been very fortunate to have gained a great number of new members in the last six months!

The MCA National Car Show was fantastic!! There was a breeze which meant it could have been hotter in the sun. There were over 200 absolutely beautiful Mustangs, and from all over the USA. Judging was complex and each car was thoroughly judged. Members Vince Casey, Dave Edwards, Victor and Karen Harris, John and Anne Haugrud, Bobby (and Lisi) Hubbell, Mike Fontaine, Tom and Francine Martindale, and Karen and I showed our wonderful Mustangs. John and Ron Freitas judges (Ron was head judge), and Erik, Jason, and Dwight visited with DVMA members and enjoyed the displays. Erik will have everything to share with all of our members!

The time is HERE! Online registration DVMA's Annual Car Show is closed, but you can still show up with your car on June 5 and enter!

The Shirts were so awesome that we need to order more. See page 11 and Email Erik to put in your order! Deadline is June 20.

See you at the next meeting June 8, 7:00 pm at Fuddruckers! Come early for food and socializing. Note that Fuddruckers is now closing at 9:00 pm so we can talk more.

Drive For Hunger Update

Here is an update from the Ford Powered Drive for Hunger food drive on April 16th: In spite of the rain, the food drive generated 3,126 meals: 813lbs of food and $1,223 in monetary donations. What a great benefit for the Food Bank and those who need its services.

DVMA Member's Mustangs

by Erik Miller, Dennis Church

We have a very special featured Mustang for you this month. This is Dennis Church's 1967 Shelby GT500 that he has owned since 1973! Finished in Highland Green with white stripes over a black interior, this striking Shelby was even featured in the Armor All booth at SEMA in 2015. This is an early '67 Shelby, car #976, so it has the inboard lights that were moved to the outer part of the grille on later cars. After buying the car, Dennis pulled the original 428, installed a 427, and drag raced the car at Fremont Dragstrip from '73 to '75. With a 4 speed and 4.11 gears, he ran a best of 13.01. Dennis had a bunch of friends that all raced their cars together in the 70's. Some had Camaros, Chevelles, and even a GTX, but they all eventually sold their cars. Not Dennis. He's managed to keep his Shelby for 49 years. Throughout those years, the engine bay has been home to the original 428, the racing 427, and currently a '69 428 Cobra Jet engine. The original 428 has been rebuilt and is sitting in the garage, waiting to be reunited one day.

As you can imagine, owning a car for that long means that you have some stories to tell. The guy Dennis bought the car from had his own '67 Shelby with a 427 that he thought was unbeatable. But, his car had 3.25 rear gears, and our feature car has 4.11s. You can bet that Dennis came out on top in that contest. Then there was the time he raced a factory-sponsored Olds 442 at Fremont Dragstrip. Dennis got the holeshot and got out on the Olds, but lost the race in the end. Afterwards, the other driver came over and congratulated Dennis on beating him off the starting line. Apparently, that was no easy feat.

Regardless of which engine he is running, one thing is for sure: Dennis and his GT500 will be making memories together for years to come.

Biggest Little National MCA Show, May 20-22

by Erik Miller

What a show! The Biggest Little National Show at the Suisun City Waterfront was a sight to behold. Hundreds of Mustangs, Shelbys, and other Fords took their places all along the water. The weather was great and the Texas style BBQ stand was very busy. Everywhere you looked there were beautiful cars to see: trailered concours, SEMA show cars, unrestored originals, and, yes, even daily drivers. DVMA had quite a showing of members cars, and we even had 5 gold and silver winners from our ranks! What a great location for a car show, and what a professional, fun, and well run show it was. Enjoy some photos taken by Anne Haugrud, Karen Davis, and myself...

More Biggest Little National Photos

Not Enough Biggest Little National Photos? OK!

This truly was a national show, reflected in how many different out-of-state license plates there were on the cars. Take a look at this sampling.
