Mustangs in Mustang!

by Anne Haugrud

This year Mustang Club of America's Grand National Car Show was held in—wait for it—Mustang, OK! How fitting is that? It's actually a suburb of Oklahoma City, and the Oklahoma Mustang Club really did this event up right. They had "all the bases covered", as they say. The very hot and humid weather was countered with easy-access air-conditioned buildings, free ice-cold water and lots of shade trees. The event was held in the parking lot of their community events center and all the amenities were available there. My husband, John Haugrud, is a gold card judge for MCA for 1969-1970 Mustang 429, 351 and 302's and attends several shows a year to keep up his certification. There are teams of judges for all the many different classes and John's team spent at least 2 hours on each of the 7 or 8 cars in their particular class.

It's hot work and these guys go over everything in, on and under the cars in these high-level categories—Concourse trailered, and Concourse driven—with a fine-toothed comb. John decided to test out the readiness and efficiency of the paramedic team on site when he was underneath one of the cars and developed a "gully-washer" of a nosebleed. He had a mask on and he described "filling up my whole mask with blood". The paramedics quickly decided he would survive without any treatment other than administering a couple of sniffs of Afrin nose spray—a decongestant that constricts the blood vessels, which totally stopped the bleeding. Who knew?

John describes the various entries on the show field as being "the best of the best" and many spectators were snapping pictures of the cars that resembled their own so they would have an image of what theirs ought to look like when they'd finished their own restoration.

Famed Mustang customizer Jack Roush was in attendance on the day of the show signing autographs and chatting with everyone who wanted to say hello. He also was at the event banquet that evening. John and I didn't attend, but he reportedly made a short address to the crowd.

Several times over the 2 days there was a small group of Mustangers-turned-actors that put on a little vignette of a cowboy gunfight using real guns with blanks. One of the “cowboys” was somehow responsible for Jack Roush getting cleared to fly his plane (with a co-pilot) from Concord, NC to Oklahoma City, OK. I'm pretty sure it was his P-51 Mustang he flew.

Anyway, this 350-member Mustang club really stepped up to the plate and put on “one of the best shows I've ever attended” according to John Haugrud, who's been to a lot of them! They seemed to get the whole community involved—police, fire, local food vendors, local radio station, souvenir vendors, etc. It's a real model for any car show event planners anywhere.

President's Message from Harry Davis

As you read this, I hope everyone enjoyed the Golden Hills 36th Annual Biggest Little Car Show at the Waterfront Plaza in Suisun city on Saturday, Sept 25. I also enjoyed the Nostalgia Day Car Show in Livermore on Sunday, Sept 26. It seemed to be a Car Show weekend for me and many others! Detail Garage also was held on Sept 26 and saw a large number of cars come and go in that area. There is a wide variety of cars in Concord, as usual on the last Sunday of every month.

Join members for a breakfast social on Saturday, October 2. Location will be Buttercup, 4301 Clayton Rd, Concord. You will enjoy the food as well as the friendships.

DVMA is fortunate to be meeting at Fuddruckers in Concord, in a separate room. Keep the second Wednesday on your calendar for DVMA meetings and socializing. You know that masks are required indoors at all times, unless eating or drinking, in county of Contra Costa. Carry a mask wherever you go in case it is needed.

Are you headed off to either of the MCA Shows – HPDE in Topeka, Kansas, or the Spirit of the West in Tucson, Arizona? If you are, please be sure to take photos and let all DVMA members know about your travels and the Shows.

See you at the next meeting October 13, 7:00 pm, at Fuddruckers! Come early for food and socializing.

Harry Davis

“Shed Find” Boss 429

Finding a long-forgotten Mustang is a dream for most car nuts, but finding a Boss 429 that's been hiding in a shed for over 30 years? That is pretty incredible. The story is really cool, and you can read all about it, plus check out the pictures and even a video of it being unearthed...
