Mt. Diablo Cruise & Picnic, August 13

by Erik Miller

Four Mustangs at Safeway - you do see all four, right?

On a hot and sunny August Saturday, DVMA members Lisi Dennis, Bobby Hubbell, Matthew Hawkes, Victor & Karen Harris, Bill & Julie Kinsey, and Erik Miller met up in a Safeway parking lot, along with Erik's friend Mike Kim who was visiting from Toronto. After randomly meeting fellow Mustang enthusiast (and hopefully future DVMA member) Paolo driving his '66 coupe, and loading up on picnic supplies, our group of four Mustangs and a Datsun set off for Mt. Diablo. Rumor had it that the summit was closed that day, and a plan B was made to meet at Rock City instead.

Upon arrival at the gate, however, it was discovered that the rumors were unfounded, so up to the 3,850 foot summit we went. We all enjoyed the views and the visitor center, and eventually the timing worked out to photograph all of our cars together.

Bill Kinsey then led us a little ways back down the mountain to a picnic area and campground that he has been visiting since he was a kid. It was a shady respite from the hot sun, and a perfect place to have our lunch, enjoy the oak trees, and hang out together. After a relaxing time there, we all headed back down to the flatlands, where a few boulevard stop sign speed contests may have allegedly taken place...

President's Message from Harry Davis

DVMA's officer elections were held in August and I thank you for re-electing me as DVMA president. Congratulations to elected 2022-2023 Board members, listed elsewhere in this newsletter. This will be a great year for all of us! DVMA has new members to add ideas to longer-time members and there are lots of wonderful events in the future. Thank each of you for your efforts with DVMA for the past year. We have been had some great events, fun meetings, and wonderful times with awesome friends.

There will be lots going on in September! A "tailgate party" at Atria Senior Living in Walnut Creek, 25th Annual Mustangs at the Marriott in Rancho Cordova, DVMA Breakfast on Sept 3, the Orinda Classic Car Show, the 10th Annual ICF Car Show in Brentwood, Livermore's Car Show, Classic Sports Racing Group Charity Challenge at Sonoma Raceway, and other nearby informal car shows.

Please be sure to renew your DVMA membership. In addition, update your club info if you change cars, add cars, etc. You can mail renewals, renew on the DVMA website, or bring renewals to the meeting(s).

See you at the next meeting Sept 14, 7:00 pm, at Fuddruckers! Come early for food and socializing. Note that Fuddruckers closes at 9:00 pm so we can talk to each other and enjoy building friendships. Maybe have ice cream, too!

Harry Davis

Cruisin' Blues Car Show, August 6th

by Erik Miller

The streets of downtown Brentwood were closed down on Saturday, August 6th for the Cruisin' Blues Car Show. Sponsored by Bill Brandt Ford, this show featured the streets lined with cars, live music, wine and beer tents, and a family fun zone for kids to enjoy. Near the main stage, there was a Bill Brandt Ford display showcasing the new all-electric Ford F-150 Lightning truck.

DVMA members brought four Mustangs to the show: Victor Harris' 1967 Fastback, Dennis Church's 1967 Shelby GT500, John Valencia's 2006 Roush GT, and Mark Colburn's 2020 Shelby GT350R. I also spotted Bobby Hubbell's 2010 GT500 parked in a nearby lot. In addition, there were a few other Mustangs and Fords in the show, and a 1969 Mercury Cougar. There were so many cars, in fact, that registration for the show was sold out.

The restaurants, bars, and shops of downtown Brentwood were open and busy, and the streets were crowded with people enjoying the cars and music. Everyone seemed to be having a good time and the show appeared to be a great success. Looking forward to the 2023 show!

DVMA Member's Mustangs

by Erik Miller, Tom Martindale

Tom Martindale had Mustang fever at a early age. As a young man in 1965, he convinced his dad to buy a new Mustang coupe, silver with a black top and red interior. Two years later, his dad traded that pony in for a new '67 fastback, which was unfortunately stolen and found stripped of its parts. That was the end of dad buying Mustangs. Tom, however, was hooked.

Many years later, Tom bought a black 2000 GT which he even entered in the DVMA car show in 2012 when it was at Buchanan Field in Concord.

Tom worked with a guy named Steve and they became good friends. This friend happens to be none other than Steve Bradley, who played the doorman at the Mark Hopkins Hotel in a little movie called Bullitt. With fond memories of the movie rekindled by talking with Steve, Tom started to accessorize his 2000 GT to look like an '01 Bullitt. Tom enjoyed his Bullitt tribute, but was always keeping an eye out for a factory Bullitt Mustang. One day in 2014, he saw what looked like one online at Serramonte Ford - the ad didn't say "Bullitt", but Tom, now something of a Bullitt aficionado, believed it was one. He went to look at the car, loved it, and made it his. Now the proud third owner of this 2008 Bullitt Mustang, Tom has entered it in many shows, including the 2018 Friends of Steve McQueen show celebrating the 50th anniversary of the movie. Thanks to their friendship, Tom made arrangements for Steve Bradley to attend the show and be honored at the awards dinner.

Tom has kept his green pony all stock, save for replacing the shocks with Bilsteins. That strategy has paid off, as he won first place, 1980s and newer at the 2021 Novato Nostalgia Days Show, a Bronze award in the occasionally driven class at the May 2022 MCA show, and the People's Choice award for 2005-2009 Mustangs at the 2016 DVMA show. Winning this last award is what prompted Tom to become a DVMA member. Congratulations on your award-winning Bullitt - we're happy to have you as part of the DVMA family.
