Strategic Initiatives

- 90% of our Hope for Hearts program participants received donor-funded financial assistance for their session fees, making it possible for them to find hope and confidence, despite their ability to pay for their sessions
- Addition of New Round Pen Arena to accommodate larger groups and give the ability for additional individual horse activities
- Re-design of barn to accommodate groups in open air area due to COVID-19
- Addition of Kathleen Terry-Sharp to our Board of Directors
- Growth of volunteer program
- Continuance and growth of each program we offer despite COVID-19, with COVID-19 safety precautions practiced.
- Represented on E³A (Equine Experiential Education Association) Board of Directors

“What I valued most for our team was the ability to have an open dialogue and how we got new insight in a creative way.”

“This experience helped me find tools to decrease stress so I can mindfully move forward during times of change.”

“I had no idea what to expect. I was blown away by what the horses showed us and what I learned about myself and the team.”

“It was amazing to me the relevance of the horses and what happened with them to what happens with our team”

“A truly positive and team changing experience.”

“This program is well thought out and catered specifically to the needs of it's participants.”

“Wow! Truly eye opening for the ways we show up and identifying the changes we need to make both personally and as a team.”

“I've spent a lot of money on trainings and I got so much more out of this one to help me and my team than any other seminars or trainings I've ever been to. The horses were amazing!”

"When I keep looking back at the horse it's like looking back at my past. I can't move forward when I'm looking back."

"The horse doesn't judge me so I shouldn't be so hard on myself."

"For the first time in my life I was able to totally clear my mind."

"I got the horse to do something by changing my negative thoughts to positive. It is the same in life. If I think "I can do" something, then I can."

"I don't have to be perfect. It's okay if I don't have all the answers."

"I can choose to throw my negative thoughts out every time they enter my brain."

"My trauma no longer defines me. Now I can figure out who I really am."

"I like who I am now. When I first started coming here I hated myself. The horses taught me to accept who I am and that I can like me for me."

"The horses taught me to have focus and how to control my fast thoughts."
